Latest Count Gives Mayor 22,557, Which Is Only a Small Margin Above What Is Required for Election

City Officials Begin Count to Verify Figures On Which Will Hinge Possible Contest Because of Errors

With the close of the semi-official count of the votes cast in the primary election Tuesday, the lead of Mayor Davie over the field in the mayoralty race has been cut to 53 votes, according to an announcement today of City Clerk Eugene K. Sturges. Final results of the semi-official survey of the votes are:

Davie	22,557
Olyphant	16,603
Reed	5,493
Meyers	342
Scattered	5

These figures show that Mayor Davie has just 53 votes above 22,504, which is necessary for him to be elected on the primary ballot.

Following the completion of the count of the votes, the official count of the precinct tallies with the city council sitting as a board of review, was begun.

After completing a check of the voting in 57 of the 114 precincts the city council, sitting as a board of review in the official count of the primary election votes at noon today announced the following changes in the returns announced in the semi-official tabulation of the city clerk:

Reed one vote gained; Downey one vote gained; Hempstead, ten votes lost; Nedderman ten votes lost; Arnet one vote lost.

The official tabulation of the vote by the city council was resumed at 2 o'clock.

Unless the official count begun today shows the mayor to have a considerable greater advantage the election will be contested on the ground of certain irregularities having taken place in the balloting and the taking of tallies, according to a statement issued by Olyphant yesterday.

DISCREPANCIES ARE POINTED OUT

In Precinct 120, at B. and G. and Gilbert street there were 278 votes cast, but only 261 votes are registered in the mayoralty contest, although there were 287 tallies for mayor.

It may be that one-quarter of the voters failed to notice the mayoralty contest in that precinct," said the city clerk, "but this matter will be looked into lest there be some mistake."

Frank E. Reed, inspector of the precinct explained this discrepancy of 77 votes with the statement that there had been an error of some sort in checking the ballots when the election workers were divided into teams for the final count.

The votes listed in this precinct were Davie 84, Olyphant 63 and Reed 51.

At Olyphant headquarters it is asserted that Mrs. Helen Foulker, 530 Merrimac street, found the election booth deserted when she desired to vote at about 5:30 o'clock. The election is that the election officials had been driven out of the precinct.

SOLONS SLUG DURING ROW IN ASSEMBLY

Walter J. Schmidt, William Scott, Both of S. F., Engage in Personal Affray On the Floor of the Lower House

Initial Victory After a Bitter Controversy Won for Saylor Amendment Increasing Fund for Home for Blind

TRIBUNE BUREAU SACRAMENTO, April 19.—(By United Press)—A fight broke out on the floor of the assembly today, between two members of the assembly, Walter J. Schmidt, of San Francisco, and William Scott, of San Francisco, who were engaged in a personal affray on the floor of the lower house.

Supporters of the bill believe they have a better chance of getting the amendment for $180,000 through. The $180,000 to be asked for in the proposed amendment is $80,000 in excess of the amount allowed by Governor Richardson for construction of a new home. This amendment, it is stated, will be introduced by Homer R. Spence of Alameda.

TRIBUNE BUREAU SACRAMENTO, April 19.—A fight broke out on the floor of the assembly, closed doors on a "tail" of the house to prevent members from leaving their escape and the mysterious disappearance of two legislators whose votes were solicited by both parties in a bitter controversy.

The first fight broke out in the lower house resulting in the withdrawal of the Saylor amendment for the increase of the appropriations of the Home for the Blind Children at Berkeley.

By a vote of 39 to 38 the administration was defeated in the passage of the Saylor amendment. The amendment would increase the salaries of officers and employees of the home.

This latter provision is the one which was carried over the middle of the house for the first time in the history of the assembly.

The first fight developed on the floor of the assembly when Assemblyman Walter J. Schmidt of San Francisco and Assemblyman William Scott of San Francisco, a staunch administration supporter, refused to allow the passage of the amendment and the passage of the Saylor amendment.

The amendment to the budget, as won by the advocates of the amendment, was defeated.

Assemblymen were separated by others. Mrs. Schmidt threw her arms about her husband to keep him from striking his opponent, and the uproar brought members including the speaker and Floor Leader Henry Carter, to the scene of conflict.

Proponents of the bill claim that the votes of Assemblymen William Hornblower and T. A. Mitchell, who were absent, are pitched to their side. These two assemblymen left the house before the vote was taken, it being openly charged by the anti-administration party that the administration forces, finding themselves unable to persuade these two members to vote their way, had prevailed upon them to do so.

With the exception of Assemblyman E. H. Christian of Hayward, who has been an administration man throughout, all the Alameda county delegates voted for the Saylor amendment. Great pressure was exerted on Assemblyman Edward J. Smith of Oakland to change his vote, and to join their ranks, but Smith stood out squarely against all blandishments and promises and voted with the schools' supporters again and

Option Taken on Island as 'Dope' Addict Hospital

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—(United Press)—A ninety-day option has been taken on San Clemente Island, lying south of Catalina Island, by Mrs. Angela Kaufman, president of the American Anti-Narcotic crusade, it was revealed today. The figure set is $200,000.

It is hoped to make the island, now a wild, barren spot, into a refuge for dope addicts. Mrs. Kaufman declared today that it is hoped to raise the money by popular subscription. If the plans go through, a huge hospital, costing several millions of dollars, will be built and dope addicts from all over the country will be given the cure there.

The island is twenty-one miles long and eight miles wide and is large enough to take care of 20,000 addicts, the organization believes. Plans for lengthy treatments, extending over a period of months, for narcotic users of long standing, are being made, it is said. Patients will be given vocational training during part of their stay, according to the plans.

LABOR CHIEF OUSTED BY RICHARDSON

Paul Scharrenberg Removed As Member of State Immigration and Housing Commission; Summary Order

Lobbying Activities Given by Governor As Reason for Action; Simon J. Lubin Is Slated to Go Also. Report

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—(By International News Service)—Governor Richardson announced the ousting of Paul Scharrenberg as a member of the immigration and housing commission shortly before noon in a letter to Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan.

The letter did not mention Simon J. Lubin, who is also believed to be slated for discharge.

The governor's letter to Secretary of State Jordan follows: "This is to advise you that I have removed Paul Scharrenberg as a member of the immigration and housing commission, effective at once."

Scharrenberg secretary of the State Federation of Labor and a member of the immigration and housing commission since its formation five years ago. He was appointed to the housing board by Johnson.

Simon J. Lubin, president of the housing commission, will also be ousted, according to the reports. Lubin is said to have precipitated his discharge by rebuking the governor for his drastic cuts in the immigration and housing commission budget.

GOVERNOR ISSUES STATEMENT

Governor Richardson issued the following statement in explanation of his removal of Scharrenberg:

In my inaugural message I called attention to the action of state employees and members of boards and commissions in exhibiting undue influence upon the members of the legislature, and I promised to assist in checking objectionable lobbying. My attention has been called to the fact that Mr. Scharrenberg, as a member of the immigration and housing commission, has been using his position as a state official to influence legislation in favor of the housing board.

By the removal of Mr. Scharrenberg from the commission, I am removing him from office. I particularly protest at his action in appointing himself to the position of a state official in an attempt to make building more expensive and burdensome upon the people. Mr. Scharrenberg may if he so desires continue to lobby as a private citizen, but he will not be able to pose as a member of my official family.

DEFINITE OBJECTION EXPLAINED

The reference to "making building more expensive" was understood to relate to Scharrenberg's efforts in connection with Senator Burnett's new state housing act and its provisions governing the construction of housing quarters for working men.

Scharrenberg is attending the session of the legislature at Sacramento as official legislative representative of the State Federation of Labor and acted in that capacity for many years.

AVIATOR AIDS 10 ICE-TRAPPED

Party Marooned On Island Is Near Death From Starvation.

BY CITY, Mich., April 19.—(By International News Service)—Lieutenant E. C. Whitehead, en route from Selfridge field, Northport, Mich., in an airplane, where he will pick up food for the starving party of nine men and a woman isolated on South Fox Island, near here, landed on the outskirts here at noon to replenish his gas supply. He will hop off early this afternoon for Northport.

SELFIDGE FIELD, Mich., April 19.—Flying a 170 horse power Curtiss airplane, Lieutenant E. C. Whitehead left Selfridge field today for South Fox Island in Northern Lake Michigan, where nine men and a woman are marooned and reported to be slowly starving.

The plane will stop at Northport, Michigan, to take on supplies before heading for the island.

Free island for several weeks waiting for the ice in Lake Michigan to break up. When provisions became almost exhausted and in a last desperate effort at life three of the most sturdy members launched a final fight in an attempt to pass to the mainland in heavy sea filled with ice.

(By the Associated Press)—Exhausted and half starved, three men who for forty-eight hours battled their way through slash, ice and open water, reached the mainland here yesterday, bearing news that ten others were on and a woman, are slowly starving on Fox Island, eighteen miles from here, in Lake Michigan.

As a result army airplanes are on their way from Selfridge field, Mich., today to carry food to the marooned party.

The party went to the island last fall to cut lumber, carrying provisions sufficient for several months. Three weeks ago all food supplies, except some frozen potatoes, were gone.

An attempt was made by four men to cross to the mainland. They started on foot, but two miles from the island the ice broke, and two of the men narrowly escaped death by drowning before the return to the island was accomplished.

ACTRESS SHOT HER, SAYS WOMAN

Row Over Debt Is Blamed by Victim Accusing Ex-Wife of Oakland Man.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Mrs. Mary Davis, an actress and divorced wife of Harry Davis, manager of an Oakland musical comedy company, is being sought by the police in connection with the shooting today of Mrs. Elizabeth Britten, who is in the Central Emergency hospital with two gunshot wounds in her head.

Mrs. Britten told the police that Mrs. Davis had fired three shots at her following a dispute over a debt. Only two of the bullets struck Mrs. Britten, inflicting flesh wounds that are declared not to be serious.

According to the police report, Mrs. Davis had agreed to meet Mrs. Charles French, 1375 Vermont street, mother of Mrs. Britten at a downtown bank in order to pay her $75 which she owed. After Mrs. French had left her home Mrs. Davis arrived and spoke to Mrs. Britten about the money. When Mrs. Britten went to the telephone

"We determined to return to the island, but a stiff wind blew in big ice floes and we couldn't turn back. We kept pushing the boat through ice all Monday night.

"Tuesday we found a stretch of open water and were able to row about two hours until we came to solid ice. We abandoned the boat and started on foot. We had gone only half a mile when we struck open water again and we went back and dragged the boat across the ice. After we put the boat in the water we found it leaked badly. It sank as we bumped upon a large ice floe Tuesday afternoon, about eight miles from the mainland.

"We used the ax to chop a large piece of the floe when we found open water at its other end. Then, using our pole, we started to paddle, using the cake of ice as our raft.

GOVERNMENT ASKS BAN ON SUGAR DEALS

Injunction Suit Brought by U. S. Attorney Against "Future" Trading on N. Y. Coffee and Sugar Markets

Prices Drop On Exchange; Officials Declare There Is No Reason for the Present Price Level of Commodity

WASHINGTON, April 19.—(By the Associated Press)—Injunction proceedings to shut off trading in sugar futures unless backed by actual ownership or control of sugar were instituted in New York today by the Federal Government.

The government's bill prepared under the personal direction of Attorney-General Daugherty after consultation with President Harding, asks the court to permanently prevent the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange from entering into or permitting any transactions in sugar, unless the person purporting to make such sale has in his possession or under his control a supply of sugar adequate to meet the requirements of such transaction.

The action is requested, the government says, as a result of "an orgy of speculation" which, has driven up the prices of sugar to the consumer and which during February enriched the pocketbooks of brokers by $900,000. A "conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce" is charged, and officials of the exchange and of the New York Coffee and Sugar Clearing House Association, against which the injunction would be directed jointly with the exchange, are asked to appear in court and answer the government's allegations.

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE MAY FOLLOW SOON

The count was advised in the bill that the exchange and the clearing house association serve "no legitimate or useful purpose in marketing in interstate and foreign commerce of raw and refined sugar, but exist only as a means of contracting and speculating. As a result it was added, price levels are established which are 'wholly speculative and artificial'.

The proceedings are the most sweeping ever instituted by the federal government in its efforts to avoid speculation in the necessities of life. The injunction petition was decided on after the whole subject, including evidence gathered in New York and elsewhere by department of justice agents had been discussed in detail by President Harding and his cabinet, and after Attorney General Daugherty, who is ill at Asheville, N. C., had reviewed and approved the bill of complaint.

Although the action today was a civil suit, Assistant Attorney General Seymour announced that the government also was considering criminal proceedings under the Sherman law and is pursuing an investigation along that line. Mr. Seymour said further that the government probably would request the courts to declare invalid the individual contracts involved in the speculation complained of and issue an order preventing settlements hereafter.

CRIMINAL ACTION IS NOT DISCLOSED

During the government's investigation it became known today that President Harding and Assistant Attorney-General Seymour have been in repeated telephone conversation with Mr. Daugherty at Asheville.

Officials here would not discuss in detail the possibility of criminal action against those held responsible for the speculation.

The attorney-general's bill declares that as a result of "fitful transactions" the price of raw sugar and the price of refined sugar to the consumer has been increased since February on an average of more than $2 per hundredweight, that these operations were carried on for the purpose and with the intent of unduly enhancing prices and that unless the court intervenes new fictitious laws will be forced in the future.

CRIMINAL LAW AND OTHERS AID CITED

The alleged conspiracy was declared in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law and other statutes of the federal government and contrary to the public policy of the United States, as well as harmful to the public.

Rountree will also undergo a new contest for the class secretary-treasurer.

SUGAR STOCKS HIT BY GOVERNMENT ACTION.

Stocks of sugar companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange also were hit by news of the injunction suit. They had started off with an advance of 1 to 1 1/4 points in the early trading, but when word of the suit reached the floor they dropped 1 to nearly 3 points from their early highs.

United States Attorney Hayward, who was in charge locally of the investigation which resulted in the suit, characterized the procedure as "united effort on the part of Federal officials to make the gamblers in sugar remove the roulette wheel from the American breakfast table."

Cuba cane sugar preferred dropped 2 1/2 points, Cuban and Manila dropped 2, and American beet sugar 1.

"Every increase of 1 cent in the price of sugar, artificially stimulated by these defendants in their speculations, has cost and is costing the American people $2,000,000 a week," Hayward asserted.

"The theory of the government in this suit is the logical development of the Sherman law, the Wilson act and the decisions of the United States Supreme court handed down Monday in the Totten corner case and the grain futures case."

SUPPLY OF SUGAR NORMAL, SAYS A TORY.

It was declared at Hayward's office that there is every indication that the supply of sugar is normal, and that the demand is also normal for the present time of the year. Only the price is abnormal, it was asserted.

The price of sugar is high because of manipulation on paper contracts for sugar which did not real life out of the department of justice investigators. The February figures of transactions on the sugar exchange show that 1,500,000 tons of sugar was actually delivered during the month of February. These figures show that actually only 2-10 hundredths of one per cent of all the February transactions on the sugar exchange were honorable and representing sugar that was actually delivered.

RAW SUGAR DROPS ON N. Y. EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Raw sugar futures took a perpendicular drop of approximately fifty points on the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange today upon receipt of word of the government's suit to enjoin trading in sugar futures.

Heavy general selling developed as soon as news of the injunction suit reached the floor. Drops ranged from 30 to 74 points, but were followed by a rally which carried prices back 35 points. Cuban raw sugar, however, sold at a new high record since 1920. A sale of 55,000 tons was made to one operator at 6 1/2 cents cost and freight equal to 3 1/2 cents for centrifugal.

Harding Responsible For Government Act

United Press Staff Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, April 18.—The government's suit today against the New York Sugar Exchange and Clearing Association is the result of President Harding's determination to force a test of the government's power to prevent the gouging of the public through manipulation and speculation.

The administration official is responsible for the action taken today. It was taken on his decision, after its advisability had been seriously questioned by other officials. He replied to all objections raised that the government could not sit on and let the public be leaved on without at least trying to do something. He directed that if there was any possible way to apply the conspiracy law, the anti-trust law or another statute, that it be tried, even if the chances were slim.

The president took the position that if the government showed the determination to act to the full limit of its power, whatever that might be, that an immediate action would be shown in a drop in sugar prices. In other words, today's suit is Mr. Harding's way of trying to "throw a scare" into the sugar speculators, whether they are members of the organizations named in the suit or not.

SENATE HALTS TALKS, SPEEDS UP BILL ACTION

Twenty-two Assembly, Nine
Senate Measures Are Passed.

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—Manifesting a growing sentiment against protracted speeches on inconsequential and uncontested matters, the Senate yesterday indulged in less debate and passed more bills than on any other day of the session. Twenty-two Assembly measures and nine Senate bills were passed.

Senator Broad, Piedmont, chairman of the rules committee, introduced a resolution to limit opening addresses to ten minutes, and all other speeches to five minutes. Unanimous consent would be required for longer talks.

Bills passed yesterday afternoon included the following Assembly measures by a vote of 22 yeas and 12 nays: Burns and Hornbrow, to require employers to furnish seats for elevator operators which can be used while the lifts are in service.

Weller, to permit the city of Glendale to construct a sewer system with an outlet through neighboring communities.

AUCTIONEER BILL.
Weller, to provide for the sale of stock of trade and for liability of any auctioneer selling stock.

Ball, to authorize boards of supervisors to maintain abandoned cemeteries.

Clark, to validate organization of the Owens Valley irrigation district.

Bromley, relating to the suspension or revocation of brokers' licenses.

Rook, to convey two blocks of waterfront land to the city of San Francisco for use as an aquatic park.

Redding, constitutional amendment proposing that voters moving from one precinct to another in the same county within thirty days of an election, shall be issued residents and qualified electors of the precinct from which they have moved until after election.

COUNTY UNIT BILL.
Frowning on the county unit school district plan, the Senate yesterday defeated a bill by Senator Eden of Santa Ana which the author argued has the approval of educators, would result in a great saving of money for taxpayers, and would make for increased efficiency in schools. The vote against the measure was 23 to 10.

Senator Lewis, Los Angeles, one of the opponents, read a communication from the Principals' club of the Los Angeles public schools objecting to the bill on the ground it would compel local communities to surrender control of their schools to remote political management.

ONLY FIVE IN ASSEMBLY.
The budget bill took so much time in the Assembly yesterday that it passed only five of its own bills, and did not get into its file of Senate bills at all. The Senate, however, devoted the day to its general file.

It was indicated in the Senate that the floor leaders would call up the budget bill until the Assembly had finished its consideration of that measure. This indicated that the remaining days of this week would be occupied, in the Senate, with the consideration of the general file, and a consequent rapid reduction of the bills awaiting consideration.

The Assembly bills passed yesterday by that body included: By Edwin Baker, amending the political code relating to the licensing of insurance agents. This law somewhat stiffens the requirements for agents and solicitors.

CAMP SITE BILL.
By Bromley, permitting the surveyor general to survey and lease camp sites on state lands; it was explained that in mountain regions citizens have "squatted" on cabin sites and camp sites because there was no authority for requiring rents. It was estimated this would bring several thousand dollars annually as rentals into the state general fund.

By Badham, permitting charitable bequests to municipalities.

By Smith, providing that when a case is transferred from the superior court of one county to that of another, a second filing fee need not be paid.

Also providing that abstracts of judgment from small claim courts need not be filed with county clerks.

Abolition of Legislature Proposed in Amendment

By E. VON LIER RUBBINK.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, SACRAMENTO, April 19.—A resolution to propose to the people of California an amendment to the constitution of the state, providing for the abolition of the present legislature, and the creation of a "Council of State" in its place, will be introduced late today in the Senate by Senators L. L. Denney, of Modesto and Joseph A. Rominger, of Long Beach. I am informed by Senator Denney, that the "Council of State" will be able to transact the business of the state in a more satisfactory manner than the present legislature, seeing that it shall act along simplified lines and will consist of fifty members instead of 120, of the present membership of the assembly and senate. He also stated that, "It is impossible in the short time during which the present legislature is in session to give proper attention to all matters before it."

TEXT OF AMENDMENT.
The senate constitutional amendment to be introduced by the two senators, reads as follows:

Resolved, That the senate, the assembly concurring, That the legislature of the State of California, at its regular session commencing on the 8th day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the said legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California, that the constitution of said state be amended, by adding to article four thereof, a new section to be numbered section one, a. and to read as follows:

"The legislative power of this state shall be vested in a body which shall be designated as the 'Council of State,' and, whenever, in the constitution or laws of the state, the words 'legislature of the State of California,' or 'senate,' or 'assembly,' are used such words shall be construed as applying to the Council of State insofar as such provisions are not in conflict with the provisions of this section."

FIFTY MEMBERS.
The Council of State shall consist of fifty members, and for members of the legislature now following the adoption of this amendment shall divide the state into fifty legislative divisions as nearly equal in population as may be, and composed of contiguous territory. These districts shall be numbered from one to fifty, inclusive, in numerical order, commencing at the northern boundary of the state, and ending at the southern boundary thereof. In the formation of such districts, no county, or city and county, shall be divided unless it contains sufficient population within itself to form two or more districts, nor shall a part of any county, or any city and county, be united with any other county, or city and county in forming any district; provided, however, that no legislative district contained within a city, a city and county, or a county which contains more than one legislative district shall have a less population than the population of the largest single county comprising one legislative district.

It shall be the duty of the Council of State to re-district the state at the next ensuing session after each census taken under the direction of the congress of the United States.

SIX-YEAR TERMS.
The members of the Council of State shall hold office for six years.

It shall be the duty of the legislature, following the adoption of this amendment, to provide for the election of the members of the Council of State, and the term of office of all members of the senate and assembly shall expire upon the election and qualification of the members of the Council of State who shall be elected at the next ensuing general election after the election at which this amendment is adopted; provided, that immediately after their election, the members shall classify themselves so that the members from districts 1, 4, 7, 10, 13, 16, 19, 22, 25, 28, 31, 34, 37, 40, 43, 46, 49, shall go out of office at the end of two years; the members from districts 2, 5, 8, 11, 14, 17, 20, 23, 26, 29, 32, 35, 38, 41, 44, 47, and 50 shall go out of office at the end of four years, and the members from the remaining districts shall go out of office at the end of six years.

Each member shall receive a salary of $5,000 a year, and his necessary traveling and contingent expenses.

MEET IN ODD YEARS.
The Council of State shall meet at 12 o'clock M., on the first Monday after the first day of January of each odd numbered year, and shall continue in session so long as may be necessary for the transaction of business, with full power of temporary adjournment, or may take a recess for such periods as may be determined upon; provided, however, that committees may remain in session during such recess or temporary adjournment, and that no act shall be passed to take effect other than the first day of November of each odd numbered year, unless by a three-fourths vote of the Council of State; such measure to be declared to be an urgent measure within the meaning of the constitution.

The Council of State shall have authority to provide that executive departments may sit in the Council, and participate in debates, but such officials shall have no vote.

Except so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this section, all of the provisions of the constitution relative to the legislature shall apply to the Council of State, but insofar as any of such provisions are inconsistent with the carrying out of the full purpose and intent of this section, such provisions are hereby repealed.

DRIVER HELD TO COURT.
BERKELEY, April 19.—Harry Huggins, 32, machinist of 2801 California street, was held to answer to the Superior Court discharging Judge Robert Edgar on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Assemblymen Engage in Fight on Floor.
The blind children of California, who live in a world of darkness, have come to us in greater need than ever, they live under intolerable, overcrowded conditions, in buildings that are falling to pieces from decay. When sick, they are taken to a hospital which is a first trap. There was recently a fire in Sacramento in which ten children perished—think of what might happen to these children who cannot even see their way, in case of fire.

Mrs. Saylor also discussed the fact that the blind and the deaf are housed under one crowded roof, stuffy dormitories, and she declared that the $50,000 provided by the Governor for new buildings was totally inadequate.

Assemblyman Walter J. Schmidt of San Francisco made the point that "the blind children of the State should not be forced to grow up under such intolerable conditions, and to sell pencils on the street corners in after life. He added: "These sightless little children, in need and unhappy, should receive all we can give them. This great and wealthy State of California should light their way as much as possible."

OPponents DEAFY APPEAL TO SYMPATHY.
In behalf of the administration, Assemblyman Chester Kline, chairman of the ways and means committee, asked the Assembly to vote down the Saylor amendments, and charged that the proponents were "using sympathy" to put the measure through. He added: "Do not let your sympathy sway you beyond what the situation calls for."

Assemblyman Albert Rosenzweig of San Francisco declared that "the neglect of the blind children of Berkeley is a disgrace to the State and to every man and woman in the legislature."

He added: "Over two hundred children are asking admission to the home, but cannot be taken care of under present conditions—for California says 'we are too poor.' If there is a surplus—apply it to this neglected class of children, and if there is no surplus, then find a way to do it all the same."

Rosenzweig then turned to various legislators of pro-administration leanings and asked them whether they would not sooner "help a blind kid, than put through your individual road bills." This frontal attack threw the house into another uproar, members jumping to their feet in indignation and from all parts of the assembly, while bitter personalities flew back and forth.

Assemblyman Chas. A. Foster, one of those singled out by Rosenzweig, asked the latter why, if the condition of the home was as described, Rosenzweig had "neglected his duty," as a member of previous legislatures, in not introducing such legislation.

time, Rosenzweig answered: "If I did neglect my duty at that time, then more is the shame, and I am here tonight to rectify it."

ADMINISTRATION FORCES DEMAND HOUSE CALL.
During the fight for the Saylor bill, the administration forces, realizing that they were on the brink of disaster, demanded a "call of the house," in the evident expectation not so much of flooding the assembly with amendments as of pressing to bear to change a vote here and there. The "call of the house," which was carried, was promptly countered by Assemblymen Spence and Rosenzweig with motions to dismiss the "call," and here again the anti-administration forces were successful, until eventually the amendment carried by 29 to 28 as follows:

Noes—Badham, C. C. Baker, Edwin Baker, Brumley, Burns, Carter, Christian (Hayward), Cleveland, Connolly, Connors, Davis, Dawson, Donahue, Duzier, Duval, Edwards, Erb, Foster, Fulviller, Graves, J. W. Johnston, Kline, Lyons, McMillan, McPherson, Allen, Mitchell, Moore, Morris, Noyes, Pedrotti, Pomeroy, Roberts, Rock, Scott, Stow, Sweller, Williams, Mr. Speaker.

Following the vote, Floor Leader Carter announced that he will move for reconsideration today.

What makes the victory of the Saylor amendment all the more remarkable is the fact that previously an amendment to increase the appropriation of the State Railroad Commission by $122,000, had been defeated by the narrow margin of one vote. Summing up the situation, Mrs. Saylor said:

"This shows that the heart of California is in the Saylor bill. There is no doubt that we are all asking for the major sum of $450,000 for new buildings will also be passed on this showing of strength."

Berkeley's Mayor Discusses Water.
Comparisons between conditions in Oakland and Los Angeles with respect to water supplies were made today by Mayor Louis Hartlett of Berkeley. The principal speaker before the regular luncheon of the Oakland Business and Professional Women's club, Mayor Hartlett gave over the hour to a discussion of the proposed Eastbay Water utility district.

COMMITTEE KILLS INSURANCE BILL

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—The Tuman insurance bill, providing for state supervision of insurance ratings and forbidding compacts in violation of the federal anti-trust laws was tabled by the senate committee on insurance last night by a vote of six to two.

After the vote A. P. Lang, president of the California Policy Holders' Association, announced that petitions would be circulated within the next sixty days to put the measure on the ballot as an initiative.

A motion was made that the bill be taken under consideration, but Tuman, its author, protested, declaring the committee should "either get it out or kill it."

P. V. Lang, attorney for the National Board of Underwriters, appeared in opposition to the bill. He held that there was no general demand for the measure and said it would seriously hamper the operations of insurance companies.

Lang spoke in behalf of the measure.

IRRIGATION BOARD APPOINTMENT CAUCUS IS HELD
SACRAMENTO, April 19.—Governor Richardson announced yesterday that he would hold a hearing next Monday, April 23, at 2 o'clock, on Senator Harris' new "State Irrigation Board law," which passed both houses of the legislature and was yesterday transmitted to the governor for consideration.

The bill provides for the organization, operation, maintenance and government of water conservation districts, and for the irrigation, drainage and reclamation of lands contained within them; provides for the generation and sale of electric power, and creates a board to be known as the "State Irrigation Board."

The bill is said to be of particular interest to a number of irrigation districts in Stanislaus, Lincoln, and Merced counties, and in the San Joaquin valley.

GOVERNOR MAY VETO ROAD BILLS

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—An announcement that Governor Richardson was not averse to having the legislature act on numerous bills to have the state take over county highways was followed by the passage of two such measures by the senate yesterday.

The governor had indicated that his policy of economy forbade the assuming of additional liabilities that would be incurred if the state accepted unpaid county roads and agreed to provide for their improvement and upkeep.

A committee composed of Senators Broad, Powers and Swing asked the governor yesterday whether he still was of the same mind. He asserted, according to the delegates, that if they so desired, he saw no reason why the road bills, which have been placed on file from day to day for the past two weeks, should not be passed. But the senators said the governor indicated he probably would not sign the bills when they got down to his office.

APPORTIONMENT CAUCUS IS HELD
SACRAMENTO, April 19.—An agreement to support the Stevens-Cleary reapportionment measure, and to oppose the Los Angeles reapportionment bill, was reached at an informal caucus of the assemblymen of Alameda county. The Cleary bill provides for a maximum of ten votes each in the assembly, for Alameda county, San Francisco and Los Angeles, thereby leaving fifty votes for the State at large. It was the sentiment of the caucus that territorial rights were as much, and even more, entitled to representation as population, and that it would be unjust to let the entire control, in both houses of the legislature, remain in the hands of the centers of population. Under the Stevens-Cleary bill, the center would remain undisturbed.

The bill is said to be of particular interest to a number of irrigation districts in Stanislaus, Lincoln, and Merced counties, and in the San Joaquin valley.

STUDENT NON-IOE STUDENT IULIUE SHOWN METHODS OF LIFE SAVING

Red Cross Lecturer Gives Instruction at School for Officers.

Demonstrations of life-saving methods, and also of effective ways of making arrests under difficult conditions were given the members of the Oakland Police School at the City Hall yesterday by Captain T. W. Sheffield, a retired officer of the British navy, who is touring the coast as the special life-saving representative of the Pacific Division of the Red Cross.

Captain Sheffield has been a voluntary worker in the Red Cross for the past seven years, and has organized many life-saving methods.

Among the topics which he discussed yesterday for the benefit of the student policemen were the prone pressure method of resuscitation, the way to get a victim away from high-voltage wires, how to get a gassed victim out of a room, various means of carrying helpless persons, and a practical way to release the hold of a drowning person on his rescuer.

Captain Sheffield also showed the police officers how to cope with a refractory person when making an arrest.

Captain Sheffield will repeat his talk on life-saving methods before several other Oakland organizations during the first week in May, when he will return to Oakland following a visit to other cities. The organizations he will address at that time include the Boy Scouts, the Young Women's Christian Association and the Young Men's Christian Association.

Right to Criticize Government Is Upheld

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 19.—(By The Associated Press.)—Only in the days of the eleven states kings, the supreme court of Illinois stated, in dismissing the $10,000,000 libel suit filed by the City of Chicago, during the administration of former Mayor William Hale Thompson, against the Chicago Tribune, could it find a reasonable basis for prosecution.

The supreme court's decision, which upheld freedom of speech and freedom of press, was announced yesterday. So far as could be ascertained from reported cases, it was believed the first time that any court in the United States ruled whether a municipality may be libeled.

Recovery for material damages was sought by the city from the Tribune for alleged libelous statements published by the newspaper in the gubernatorial campaign of 1920, when it supported John Colesby and the city administration favored Len Smith. Credit of the city, the bill charged, was injured by publication of "defamatory matter."

Of the rights of individuals or newspapers to criticize the government, the court's opinion said: "Since the people are sovereign and since the magistrates are to serve them, it is their duty to keep them informed of the truth." ## COLORED ADORERS OO LU AMULIOTO PAROLE BREAKER

The arrest of a girl accused of violating the State parole laws was effected at a house on Sixth street today by Miss Meriel McLaughlin, a police officer.

Miss McLaughlin made the arrest after an investigation conducted by herself and Dr. Eva Reid, physician for the State Home for the Feeble-Minded at Glen Ellen. The girl was lately paroled from that institution, and was found to have violated her parole by marrying without the consent of the authorities, according to Dr. Reid.

The girl is being held at the emergency hospital until she can be returned to Glen Ellen.

TAXES OF COUNTY REMARKABLY LOW STATES MULLINS

Supervisor Gives Figures of Interest to Knights of Round Table.

Alameda county's tax rate is remarkably low, considering what the taxpayers get for their money, Supervisor John F. Mullins yesterday told the members of the Knights of the Round Table at their weekly luncheon.

"No investment made by a resident of Alameda county is as profitable as his investment in county government," Mullins declared.

"Of the $2.66 collected on each $100 of taxable property, $1.80, or about 87 per cent, is spent on education," he pointed out. As an illustration of what this means, he said: "A man with a salary of $100, a home worth $5000 and four children of school age, will pay in taxes just $27.50 a year for the education of those four children, assuming his home to be assessed as usual, for half its value, or $2500."

SALARIES CONSUME LITTLE.

"Salaries of county officials and employees consume only 13-16 cents out of the $2.66. Another cent is spent for advertising purposes, another for county bridge bonds, two mills for prevention of forest fires—and the remainder goes into the county general fund."

This general fund is used to maintain such benefits as roads, bridges, hospitals, county aid for the needy and the department of weights and measures, according to Mullins.

"The $3,000,000 Highland hospital is being erected out of this fund and will be the foremost municipal hospital in the world. The Tuberculosis Sanitarium at Livermore, the Baby Hospital, the Detention Home and other important institutions are supported by this fund. It also provided the $50,000 recently set aside for the Public Health Center of Oakland."

The weight and measure department, which costs $18,000 a year to run, saves housewives and motorists of this county nearly $300,000 annually through correcting faulty weights and measures," Mullins said.

POOR FAMILIES AIDED.

"About $400,000 a year is spent for indigent aid and mothers' pensions. This provides $20 a month for each child left without a father's support. All disbursements of this character are made only with the approval of the State Board of Control. During 1922 between 1700 and 1800 families were so aided in this county."

"Alameda county is, in effect, a half-billion-dollar business and that business is the health and education of the people within its borders," Mullins concluded. "We want the people to know what they get—not merely what they give—in taxing. If more taxpayers thoroughly understood the handling of the tax money there would be less feeling that Alameda county has a high tax rate."

Self Styled Speed Demon Evades Police

ALBANY, April 18.—"I'm a speed demon," laughed Miss Dorthea Jensen, 25, and pretty, who gave her residence as the Hotel St. Mark, Oakland, when stopped for exceeding the speed limit in Albany yesterday morning.

"How fast was I going, officer?" asked the young woman.

"Forty-two miles," responded Marshal John Glavin.

"Is that all? You ought to have seen me when I was going 55. I seldom travel under 60."

The young woman is the "speed demon" she proclaimed herself to be was borne out by new evidence this morning.

A bench warrant for her arrest was issued today by Judge John H. Paul of Albany when she failed to appear to answer the charge against her. At the Hotel St. Mark officers found that no such person had been registered there. Miss Jensen asked for a "speedy" trial in order that she might depart for Seattle tomorrow. She gave her occupation as a "tourist."

Officers are tracing the young woman through her automobile registration number. If she is apprehended she will be sent to jail, for according to the ruling of Judge Paul all motorists traveling over 40 miles an hour in Albany must serve time in Sheriff Barlett's hostelry in Oakland.

Tribune Ad Lures Nevada Investor

A. T. Sherk, well known as a merchant of the Hopkins street business section, has disposed of his property at Calaveras avenue and goes to Shasta county to engage in mining. His business has been taken over by Nevada interests.

Residents of the intermountain country speak of "Going Below" for the winter as a pleasurable, rather than an alarming experience. Doctor F. A. Plymire, a retired Nevada dentist, has "Gone Below" permanently. He has acquired Sherk's property on Hopkins street through the office of The Marshall Realty Company in the Bacon block. The advertisement which introduced buyer and seller appeared in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE on March 21, 22 and 23, and read as follows:

OWNER, LEAVING CITY.
Will sacrifice 14-acre Hopkins and Calaveras, 180-ft frontage, for $2500; $825 cash. Has small store paying $20 mo. carrying charges. Withdrawn from market if not sold before April 1st; worth $3500. Investigate. Marshall, 254 Bacon bldg., Oak. 8262, Elm. 1745.

Dr. Plymire is enthusiastic about the future of this portion of Oakland and plans to improve the property and hold it for the signal advance in value which he regards as certain.

TO GIVE SHOW IN MEMORY OF FIRE

Annual Show Is Arranged to Honor City's Rise After Disaster.

The San Francisco Press Club's "Seventeen Years After" show, commemorating the remarkable rise of the city after the fire of April 18, 1906, will be given in the Century Theater, beginning at midnight Saturday.

The show is an annual affair originated by Press Club members a year after the fire as a means of expressing San Francisco's determined growth following the holocaust which leveled the city seven years ago.

The entertainment program, arranged by Frank Connolly of the show committee, includes several acts by Press Club members, professional talent from San Francisco theaters, musical and vocal numbers, humorous skits and a boxing exhibition by "Battling" Nelson, former lightweight champion.

The dance of the hours, staged by eight Press Club thespians, is a feature act of the "Seventeen Years After" show.

School days' features Miss Dorothy Carley, daughter of Fred Carley, University of California dramatic instructor, who is coaching the acts, and Miss Edith Jacobs and Miss Leah Cohn.

Six girls will present the "Jockey Chorus" in dance numbers and popular songs. The young women are Miss Ann Scanlon, Miss Lucille J. Byrne, Miss Lillian Macdonald, Miss Esther Bartholomew, Miss Catherine Monahan and Miss Ann McArdle.

Odey La Marr, contralto, will sing "mammy" songs, accompanied by Jack Heffernan at the piano.

Pugilistic fans will see a "comeback" attempt by "Battling" Nelson, former lightweight champion of the world who has agreed to box an opponent as yet unselected, as an exhibition bout in the club's show.

AIRPLANE MAIL SERVICE SHOWS SAFETY GAINS

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Up to the close of last year, aviators of the air mail service had flown a total of 1,281,823 miles since the inauguration of the service in May, 1918, according to a report on the accomplishments of the service made public today by the postoffice department. It was estimated that the service now is 600,000 miles a year.

Figures on the operating efficiency of the service gave the percentage performance for the entire five-year period as 99.38 per cent, which the report rated as a "relatively high figure." The total cost of the service since its inauguration was figured at $4,295,967.63, much of the expenditure having been made for permanent improvements, such as repair shops and development of landing fields. A total of 150,437,000 letters had been delivered by air, the total for last year going to 60,000,000.

The report showed that on more than one-third of the 14,704 trips made, the pilots had to wing their way through rain, snow, hail or fog. The increasing dependability of the service was shown to have been shown in the decrease in the number of forced landings from 1473 in 1921 to 573 last year. The decrease was attributed to increased skill of pilots and rigid inspection of planes.

Although the transcontinental mail route was inaugurated in 1920 the percentage performance fell to 78.04, after having been maintained at 94.09 in 1921, it increased again to 92.84 in 1922 and in 1923 reached 95.54 per cent.

FLOWERS UP STATE

"Good afternoon, Mrs. Brown. Come in. You haven't been over for so long I thought you never were coming. I'm so glad you are here."

"Well, I've wanted to come in and see you for a long time, but since we moved it is so far I almost never do get back to this neighborhood. Goodness, what a lot of lovely flowers you have today. As this some special occasion?"

"Not at all. They are all wild flowers. We took a drive out in the country yesterday and brought all these flowers home. I am getting interested in California wild flowers and have learned the names of all of these."

"How interesting. About the only thing I know by name is the lupine, and the California poppy, of course. One should know more about these wonderful flowers."

"Yes, indeed. I am going to try to find out the names of more of them gradually. But tell me about yourself. What have you been doing all these months? You look so well with that suit—it's new isn't it, and the hat?"

"I'm glad you like them. They are new clothes. And, to be frank I put off a lot of calls until I did get something new. Yes, I got both the suit and hat last week and I am so pleased with them. I never before knew what a satisfactory shop Cherry's, at 515 13th street, is. They seem to have just what one wants, and what is more they are glad to extend credit to their customers."

McMADINI TEST WINS INTEREST OF EAST BAY ARTISTS

Designers Will Enter Competition for the Bernhardt Tomb Tablet.

Eastbay artists today showed marked interest in the contest for the best design for a memorial tablet to be placed on the tomb of Madame Sarah Bernhardt, the world's greatest actress, who died recently in Paris.

The competition is being held throughout the country under the direction of the Orpheum circuit and in Oakland, under the auspices of The TRIBUNE in conjunction with the Oakland Orpheum, according to announcement by M. A. Anderson, Orpheum manager. Judges will be announced in The TRIBUNE in the near future.

Designs should be sent to the Sarah Bernhardt Contest Editor at The TRIBUNE. They will go to the Orpheum and finally will be sent east, where they will be placed in competition with the work of artists throughout the country.

OPEN TO ALL.

The contest will be open to anyone who chooses to compete. Designs will be accepted up to midnight, Monday, April 30.

Each design must be drawn in ink or crayon, in order that it may be reproduced in newspapers. It should be plainly marked with the name and address of the designer. Although perfection of execution will necessarily be one of the points taken into consideration, it will be a very minor factor in the awarding of the prizes, as it is the Orpheum Circuit's desire to secure as many designs as possible and to so arrange the terms of the contest that students, as well as professional artists, may have an equal chance of winning the prizes.

EXPRESSIVE SYMBOL.

It is the wish of the Orpheum Circuit that the designs shall take the form of a symbol expressive of the glorious and unparalleled achievements of Madame Bernhardt as an artist, her sympathetic encouragement to those who were struggling for fame and recognition, and the inspiration to the uplift and advancement of vaudeville, which her tours of the Orpheum Circuit created.

Designs must be suitable for reproduction in the form of a tablet, approximately three feet wide and four feet high.

From day to day The TRIBUNE will reproduce one or more of the designs submitted.

Tuesday, May 1, the committee will select, from all designs submitted, the five best, and these will be sent immediately to the executive offices of the Orpheum Circuit, Chicago, where, on Monday, May 7, a committee of internationally famous artists will select from the five designs submitted by each Orpheum Circuit theater the five winners. From these will be selected the one design from which the memorial will be reproduced.

As soon as the tablet is made a representative of the Orpheum Circuit will personally bring it to Madame Bernhardt's tomb in Paris and will superintend its erection.

The prizes to be awarded in this contest are as follows:

For the design selected ..... $250
For the second best design ..... 100
For the third best design ..... 50
For the fourth best design ..... 25
For the fifth best design ..... 10

In addition to the above cash prizes, a replica of the winning design will be awarded to the best designer among the best five selected in each Orpheum Circuit city. Richly embossed certificates of honorable mention will be presented to each of the other four designers.

"His Broken Idol" Gets Her Freedom

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Mrs. Florence Josephine Valderana, 525 Eighth avenue, yesterday in Judge Graham's court obtained a divorce from Louis A. Valderana, importer, 628 Ashbury street.

Mrs. Valderana obtained her divorce after she filed a letter written to her by her husband, in which he addressed her as his "broken idol." A portion of the letter follows:

"We can be friends or enemies, as you like it. I consider it beyond our power to have met, mysteriously fallen in love and as a result of this very much. But our divorce now becomes necessary and it is unavoidable. I shall ever regard you as my broken idol."

Activities of WOMEN

Attitude When Addressing Flag Is Discussed

By EDNA B. KINARD.

What attitude shall a woman assume when giving the salute to the flag?

It is a question which has troubled many of the feminine organizations. In the state convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Oakland this spring the query was left unanswered and referred to the national organization. Again it arose this month at the regular meeting of Tamalpais chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

The Lincoln salute is receiving much favor. Its adoption has been suggested by Mrs. Frank M. Burdette, Tamalpais chapter regent. In reciting the pledge of allegiance a woman under its custom stands at attention with her hand over her heart.

The story of the salute is traced back to a question put to President Lincoln by a young woman, seeking to know what she should do to salute the colors.

"My heart feels the thrill, but what shall I do to show my feelings," she asked.

"Place your hand above your heart," was the simple advice.

Illiteracy problems in California are being seriously considered by the women of the D. A. R. who are cooperating with Mrs. Anne Godfrey, bureau of naturalization, United States department of labor, in San Francisco. Illiteracy has increased in California by 20,000 persons within the past ten years, according to this authority. The patriotic organizations have undertaken to place the situation at least before their own membership.

Although the weather has ruined the play day of Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs in Lakewood park on Saturday, it has not ruined the factor in adopting an annual outdoor carnival which shall fall in September. With plans all completed for the April festival by Mrs. Jack Walker, general chairman, Mrs. A. B. Roy and Mrs. C. M. Variell, the play day this month has been definitely called off because of the threatening weather and damp laws.

Mrs. F. V. Vollmer has been elected to succeed herself in the presidency of Oakland Federation.

Alameda County Federation of Women's Clubs is anticipating a play day tomorrow, turning aside from a serious program of work to welcome the new officers who will preside over its destinies next season. A luncheon of which a note will be featured, a few informal toasts and a simple reception has been planned by Mrs. L. R. Rosenberg of Hayward, retiring president, and the women who have been associated with her on the board of directors for the past two years in compliance to Mrs. L. G. Leonard, president-elect, and her fellow officers.

Stiles hall, Alameda way and Dunn street, will offer setting for the spring function. Reservations may be made with Mrs. C. G. Swartz, Cloyne court, Berkeley.

California day is observed annually by the women in the Alta Vista club, Mrs. George Armstrong of Piedmont, president. Mrs. Joseph LeConte, daughter-in-law of the famous scientist, and Mrs. Jessie Promont Herring, director of the California League of Fine Arts, were speakers on the program this month which lauded state history and makers of state history.

Mrs. LeConte related experiences of her father-in-law in his earliest explorations in the Sierras and his meeting with John Muir. California art was reviewed by Mrs. Herring. She emphasized the names of Dill, Keith and Lumsden. California music was represented in the groups of songs rendered by Mrs. Bowman Miller.

Cornell alumnae who come to Oakland in attendance upon the annual convention of the National Association of Cornell Women will be welcomed by the Cornell Women's club, which claims its membership.

Mrs. Eugene A. Bridgford is the newly elected president of this interesting group of university women who are now engaged in planning hospitality to their fellows. Associated with her as officers are: Mrs. E. J. Chevalier, vice-president; Mrs. Carol Aronowicz, secretary-treasurer. The annual meeting was held this month at the home of Dr. Isabelle Caldwell Books in San Francisco. In by Professor Ryan and Mrs. Ryan at Stanford.

Mrs. R. G. Moore has been elected president of McChesney Parent-Teachers Association for the coming year. Associated with her on the board of directors are Mrs. G. H. Leonard, Mrs. C. C. Davis, vice-president; Mrs. William H. Dunn, recording secretary; Mrs. G. S. Perkins, corresponding secretary; Mrs. R. L. Griffith, financial secretary; Mrs. W. J. Lancaster, treasurer; Mrs. F. Hambleton, auditor; Miss Hunt, historian; Mrs. H. Ward Campbell, parliamentarian; Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. A. Peter, Mrs. J. Wood, delegates to Oakland Federation.

Tree planting in the Allendale school grounds has been undertaken by the local Parent-Teachers Association, which has appropriated from its treasury the sum of $10 for the purchase of young shrubs.

Installation of the newly elected officers will be a feature of the regular meeting tomorrow.

The mothers are arranging a whist party for Saturday evening in Mutual hall, Thirty-eighth avenue. Mrs. J. Chich is chairman.

Knightsen District
Elected New Director
KNIGHTSDEN, April 19.—The special election held this week in the Knightsen hold district to decide a tie vote for director of division No. 3, resulted in the election of Percy J. Moody over his opponent, Charles J. Dwyer, by a vote of 15 to 10.

TRAFFIC JAM AT BRIDGE PICTURED AT TUBE MEETING

Photographs in Support of Tunnel Campaign Show
Long Line of Autos.

The blockade of street car and vehicular traffic at the Webster street bridge, was set forth in a meeting of the tube and estuary committee at Hotel Oakland and photographs showing the long line of machines and cars waiting for the bridge to clear were presented by Charles C. Wilson, campaign manager, as an added reason why the people should vote bonds for a tube on May 8.

The meeting was attended by nearly two score men and women from various Eastbay organizations, many of whom expressed themselves as definitely favoring the tube bond issue.

Lockiel King of the staff of the state board of harbor commissioners acted as chairman and declared that Oakland and Alameda are much in need of a permanent and satisfactory traffic link to replace the bridges.

ACTION IS URGED.
"No matter what kind of a bridge is built to replace the existing ones, we will never have the right kind of transportation until we go under the water instead of over it," said King. "The tube has been agitated for a long time and now that the government has ordered out our present obsolete bridges we are up against a crisis that demands action."

County Surveyor George A. Posey explained some of the engineering features of the proposed tube, saying that it has been planned along lines successfully carried out in tubes in many parts of the world and that it has been found that there are no great obstacles to be surmounted.

"The tube," he said, "is less than half the length of the one between New York and Jersey City, under the Hudson river. Longer tubes than ours were constructed many years ago in Europe and this kind of engineering is now such a well-known science that we need not compute no trouble from the engineering point of view."

MEETS AT TUBE DEMANDS.
Posey said that such a tunnel would carry 2000 automobiles an hour without street car traffic, but when automobiles trail the street cars the maximum capacity would be reduced to about 1500 machines an hour. This is greatly in excess of the present demands. A traffic count shows that comparatively few persons walk across the bridge and that most of the traffic is by automobile, street car and truck. However, a three-foot sidewalk is provided.

Posey pointed out that the ideal method is to have one tube for street cars and another for vehicles, but that under the circumstances it was thought better to save money at this time by combining the two.

He intimated that when future traffic requirements demand it a second tube could be built. Regardless of the number of tubes that might be constructed the estuary would always remain clear, for the tube is in the channel and the land traffic would continue to flow without interruption between the two sides. A sample bridge according to the best available estimates, Posey said, will not clear more than 50 per cent of the vessels in the channel.

Wilson's photographs showed a long line of automobiles and street cars waiting at the open bridge on the Oakland side and brought home to the committee the story of delay that has long been a reality to Oakland and Alameda commuters.

79 Homes Visited By Health Nurse

SAN LEANDRO, April 19.—A report to the local board of trustees by Mrs. Helen Bramhall, public health nurse, shows that in March she visited 79 homes, made seven miscellaneous visits, sent six patients to the hospital and made seven classroom inspections.

Mrs. Bramhall will retire from local service May 1, her place to be taken by Miss Ella B. Thongel.

Hairy Growths Removed Entire, Roots and All

The vexed questions of how to completely banish superfluous hair has been solved at last. By means of the new phenol process, the hairs entire, roots and all, come out before your very eyes—easily, harmlessly, "quick as a wink." Quite different from the depilatory, electrolytic and shaving methods. Phenol is perfectly odorless, non-irritating, non-poisonous—a child could use it without the least in-showing, danger, no one would tell you ever had a moustache or other hairy growth. Procure a stick of phenol from your druggist, follow the simple instructions and you will certainly be astonished and delighted.—Advertisement.

RADIO USED TO WARN INVESTORS OF OIL FRAUDS

Advertising Club Counsel Tells Air Audience of "Sucker" Lists.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—At the Wednesday meeting of the San Francisco Advertising Club, held in the Palace Hotel, Elliot M. Epstein, general counsel of the club, told in his report of a new method of preventing fraud.

The advertising club enforces the "Truth in Advertising" movement. The Better Business Bureau is the division of that organization which deals with that phase of its activities. Epstein was invited by the Mercantile Trust Co. to speak over the "air" from its Telegraph Hill station, KFDB, on the work of his organization. He went thoroughly into the work of the Better Business Bureau to show how millions of dollars had been saved the public annually through the correcting of false and misleading advertising. He stressed the fact that the bureau had offered to give disinterested information to any person solicited.

The next day an inquiry came from Burlington. The writer stated that he had a home made crystal set, and was about to invest in a Texas oil promotion. He sent the mail matter set to him. Among it was an annual report of the company. After telling of its glowing "intentions," it reported:

BROADCASTERS MEET SATURDAY TO PLAN WAVES

Class "A" Stations Will Be Able to Program for Entire Day.

A complete shake-up of radio broadcasting waves is about to take place. A meeting of the broadcasters has been called for Saturday morning to arrange a new distribution of individual waves for both class "A" and class "B" stations. The waves for the class "B" stations have been designated by Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, covering the entire United States. Waves for the class "A" stations will be designated by the supervisor of radio for the Sixth district.

Major J. F. Dillon, formerly radio inspector for this district, has returned from the Washington radio conference armed with a new title. He is now supervisor of the Sixth district, and under him will be two radio inspectors.

Major Dillon's return brings a general change in the entire Pacific coast radio situation, coincident with similar changes throughout the United States. New wave allocations to broadcasting stations are to be made, which will effect a change in ship or shore communication, all of which will become effective May 15.

The two class "B" stations in San Francisco will operate on 455 and 509 meters respectively. Those in Los Angeles will use 235 and 402 meters. The class "B" station in Portland will operate on 422 meters.

The change is designed to prevent interference between stations. Major Dillon and the owners of class "A" stations will arrange the wave allocation on Saturday. The stations that will be affected in this arrangement will be The TRIBUNE KLX; the Examiner, KUO; Warner Bros. KTS; Clements has, KJL; KJL. These stations will each be assigned an individual wave and will be permitted to operate twenty-four hours a day if they so desire. The radio fans will be able to tune in on any one of the stations with a minimum of interference.

LOVE NOTE QUIZ LAID TO POLITICS

JACKSON, Amador County,

April 19.—Friends of Oran A.

King, publisher of a county newspaper, and secretary of the California Press Association, who has been absent from his home here for two weeks, declared today that "love politics" were responsible for the investigation now being conducted into reports that King had written love letters to a number of local school girls.

W. C. Copeman, general manager of King's business interests in Jackson, stated that the charges and the subsequent probe by District Attorney T. G. Negrich of Amador county result from King's appointed postmaster. Negrich said today that he had been unable to find evidence that King had kept any of the "dates" arranged by the alleged letters. King is said by friends to be visiting relatives in the Santa Cruz mountains.

"I am not prepared as yet to say just what action this office will take," said the district attorney.

Extra Quality—at No Extra Cost

Because Goodyear Tires have such a remarkable reputation, many people think they are necessarily high-priced. That is a mistake—despite their extra quality, they cost no more to buy than ordinary tires.

Even the wonderful new Goodyear Cord with the beveled All-Weather Tread is sold at the following low prices:

30 x 3½ Clincher . . . $17.55
32 x 4 Straight Side . . . 36.10
32 x 4½ Straight Side . . . 46.70

When you can buy the finest tire Goodyear ever made for so little money as this, and get service that assures you every mile built into them at the factory, surely it does not pay to experiment with "unknown" brands.

Avoid Motor Oils
containing paraffin, asphalt or any other non-lubricating substance. Aristo Oil is refined by the most advanced processes, designed to remove everything in the crude which has no lubricating value.

Some "Carbon" Clings hard and flint-like— Some Blows Out with the exhaust

THERE are two kinds of carbonaceous residue—"carbon." All motor oils deposit one kind or the other, as every maker of oil knows.

The harmful "carbon" is hard and flint-like. It acts as an abrasive, wearing cylinders, pistons

It has a tendency to cling, and must be burned or chiseled out of motors.

Causes "Knocking"

This hard "carbon" becomes incandescent, pre-igniting your gasoline, which causes "knocking."

It attaches to spark-plugs and causes short circuiting—the motor misses.

Particles clog the valves. The valves leak. Therefore, some of your gasoline is wasted both before it can do any work and while it is working.

And this flinty, clinging "carbon" is deposited in quantities two to three times as large as the other kind.

Fluffy, Soft, Non-Clinging
Aristo Motor Oil deposits a very little of a different kind of residue.

It hasn't the same tendency to cling, hence most of it blows out with the exhaust. That which is left is soft and fluffy—softer than cylinder walls, pistons, rings or bearings—so cannot scratch or wear.

Your car runs thousands of miles farther without needing valves ground or pistons or cylinders changed. Spark-plugs practically never "foul."

The motor doesn't "knock," lasts longer, runs more smoothly and gives more power, due to full compression. "Carbon" troubles are eliminated.

Aristo is a finer motor oil, developed by the expert lubrication engineers and chemists of the Union Oil Company, equipped with every accepted facility for the most exhaustive research. Famous drivers have tested Aristo under grueling conditions—far more severe than any that your motor will ever encounter.

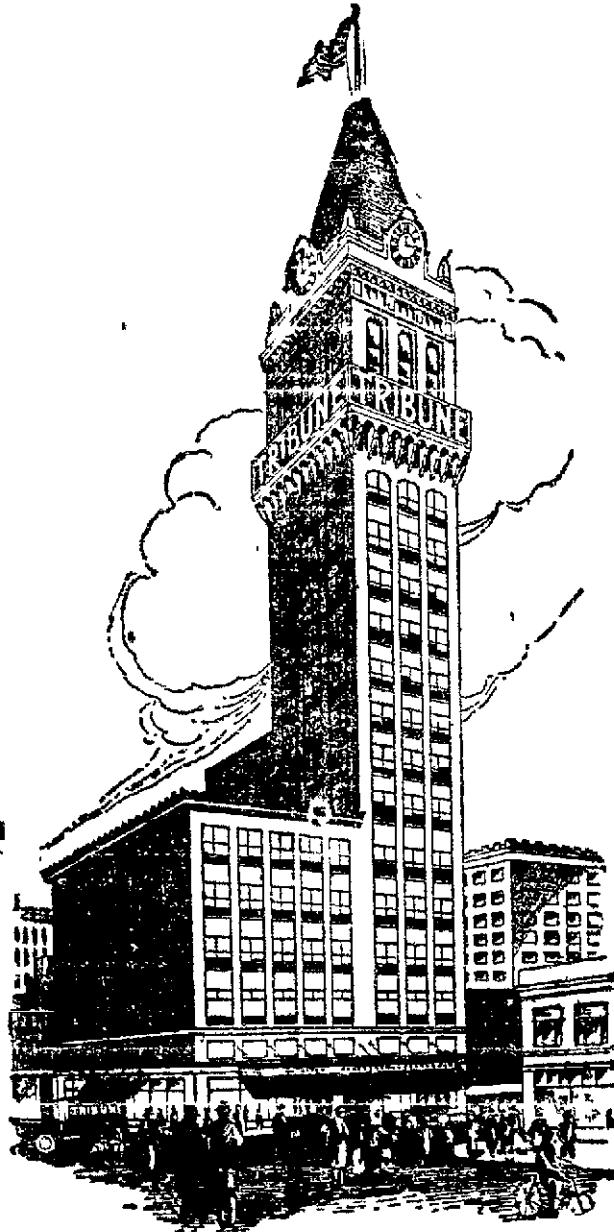

A durable, fine film penetrates to and protects each working part in any weather and at all motor heats.

To get perfect lubrication without "carbon" troubles, always say "Aristo" when you buy. For sale at all first-class garages and service stations.

REPORT QUINERS RESORT OWNERS ASK PROSECUTOR TO CLOSE PLACE TO CLOSE PLACE

Mayor Aids in Legislature
Fight to Reapportion
$200,000 Fund.

MARTINEZ, April 19.—In a unique action in court annals here, Thomas C. Sedwick and Manuel Rose Piereira, owner of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at San Pablo, have on file in Superior court confession of judgment admitting allegations made by District Attorney A. B. Timiney that the abatement suit be instituted against the place to close it for one year.

Confessing the charge of liquor sales by the district attorney, the owners of the establishment ask that Superior Judge E. H. Lattin order the place closed as requested by Timiney.

Temporary injunctions restraining owners and operators of seven other resorts without suits have been instituted, from selling liquor or removing any material, have been served by deputy sheriffs.

Unless confessions of judgment are obtained in the seven other abatement suits, they will go on the regular court calendar and will be set for trial the same as any other action.

Confronted with the necessity of raising a fine of $500, or seeing his wife go to jail for 30 days for a liquor law violation, A. Ferrario of Concord late yesterday afternoon secured the money and the release of his wife, Mrs. Ferrario, who was being detained at the sheriff's office pending the outcome of her husband's money-raising expedition.

Mrs. Ferrario was arrested in a raid at Concord Sunday night, and when held before Justice of the Peace E. D. Jackson she pleaded guilty. When the fine was unpaid yesterday, she was brought here by Constable John Ott.

Approximately 600 gallons of whisky, seized at several resorts, were turned over to the district attorney, and were turned into the county jail. Other paraphernalia seized in the raids were destroyed.

'Arrests' Owner

Harry Golden, 1437 Seventeenth street, owner of a movie fiction, today reported an experience which had convinced him that burglars were not to be trusted.

Golden's home was robbed Tuesday night, and last evening he and Mrs. Golden were returning home from down town, where they had been visiting.

Golden says he walked down East Fourteenth street, where he met a uniformed policeman who told him to go home.

Golden says he was not alone, and he guarded the back door and the other front door, while Golden went into the house to chase the burglar out.

In the meantime, a neighbor, seeing Golden in an upper room, mistook him for a burglar. The neighbor went up on the Golden porch unseen by the two officers, and covering Golden with a gun, ordered him to come down.

Golden came down, the police came up, and the neighbor came through with an apology.

Other neighbors were busy meanwhile, telephoning to the police station. The officer, however, arrived and by that time the burglar had escaped.

Suicide's Note

FRESNO, April 19.—Days of Captain Kidd and John Silver with a touch of the days of '49 returned to Fresno county today when automobile parties and pedestrians went into the hills of the county to hunt for treasure.

The search followed the finding yesterday of a note, signed "R. E. Cartwright," which declared that the writer had committed suicide and had buried $1,000 under the willows along the river. Two deputy sheriffs took up the search for the body yesterday afternoon.

HARDING DECIDES TO SPEAK IN S. F. ON LONG JOURNEY

Itinerary of the Alaska Trip
Scheduled to Begin
June 16.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The preparation of a list of places where President Harding will speak on his prospective western trip this summer has now progressed to the point where a dozen cities in the Central and Western States have been more or less definitely determined upon for the delivery of important addresses.

Although no detailed itinerary as to date has been worked out, it has been established definitely that the westward trip will begin about mid-June, probably Saturday, June 16.

St. Louis and Kansas City, included in the list, are expected to be selected as the cities in which the president will sound the keynote of his message to the west in a review of the accomplishments of his administration. He is understood to have definitely decided against a number of invitations urging that he make the first speech of his trip in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky or Illinois, preferring to make contact at once with the country west of the Mississippi.

The other cities upon which more or less definite decision has been reached and the order in which the president expects to visit them are Denver, Salt Lake City, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Helena, Minneapolis, Chicago and Detroit.

Although some of his advisers are urging that the president confine himself to important addresses at these points, the list of cities may be increased to perhaps twenty. President Harding is said to still feel that he might make that many speeches without overtaxing his strength, although his plan to visit Alaska during the trip may make this inadvisable.

"THIS IS HELL

OF A WORLD,"

SUICIDE'S NOTE

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 19.—(By International News Service.)—Blonnie Oles, 20, of Coraopolis, near here, clerk in a downtown hotel, was identified last before noon today as the girl who went to a prominent hotel last night and registered as Ruth Hardy of Denver, Colo., and then committed suicide by taking poison.

In a letter she left she wrote: "Please don't cause notice on my part but do publish this. My final wish is to have the world know that every day it is the cause of many a girl's steady fast inclination to do worse and worse. Just because a girl has done wrong, often through force, throw them aside and don't give them a chance. Society and so forth are making me a demon. What a girl needs is love, education and someone to consider their faults as a mere mistake. Hell couldn't be worse than this earth."

"Society, hell! A lot of hypocrites that know their wrongs from public observation with the aid of money and so-called friends, though there isn't such a thing as a friend."

"This is a hell of a world. Love to mother." was a postscript to the note she left.

Santa Cruz Bureau

Sets Picnic Place

WATSONVILLE, April 19.—At a meeting of the Santa Cruz county farm bureau in Santa Cruz it was decided to hold the county farm bureau picnic at New Brighton Beach near Aptos, Saturday, May 20.

President P. L. Solbeck, of Corralles announced that he had obtained assurances that Congressman Arthur M. Free, of San Jose, and A. C. Hardison, president of the State Farm Bureau Federation, will attend and deliver the principal addresses of the day.

Coffee, cream and sugar will be supplied free and all who attend are invited to bring basket lunches. An interesting program of sports and athletic events is being arranged by a committee headed by Farm Bureau.

Irish Hunger Striker

Released From Jail

DUBLIN, April 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Conn. Murphy, who has been on a hunger strike in Mount Joy prison nearly four weeks, has been released, it was announced today.

Dr. Murphy, who some time ago visited Rome to lay the republican cause before Pope Pius, was arrested March 22 and immediately began a hunger strike.

What to Eat and Why

Making a Big Word an Easy Part of Your Diet

Car-bo-hydrates make up about 60 per cent of the average diet. They produce heat and energy. They are largely secured from the grain and vegetable starches.

In the long, slow baking by which Grape-Nuts is produced from wheat and malted barley, the grain starches are partially pre-digested.

"Dextrins" and "malts" forms of Carbohydrates so easy to digest that they form the basis of the most successful baby foods.

Many people have digestive trouble caused by the food-stuffs in the original form, but Grape-Nuts has been famous for a quarter-century for its exceptional ease of digestion, and assimilation, and its splendid, building nourishment. It is a food for strength and energy, delightfully crisp and appetizing, made today by the same formula which first brought this charm for taste and aid to health to the world's dining table. Grape-Nuts contains the iron, phosphorus and the essential vitamin, so often lacking in modern "healthful" foods.

Many servings of real food value in a package of this economical food. At your grocer's today—ready to serve with cream or milk. Grape-Nuts—the Body Builder. "There's a Reason." Made by Postum Cereal Co., Inc., Battle Creek, Mich.

CURTAIN CALLS Wood, Soanes

THE Moscow Art Players have left New York and gone to Chicago to repeat their unequalled success in the eastern states and to bring forth a new story on their art.

It is Morris Gest who imported the aggregation of dramatic artists who told Sheppard Butler of the Chicago Tribune the other day just how much interest the players take in their work and how much they differ from their American brothers.

"With them the theater is a religion," explained Gest. "When they prepare for a performance they take off every stitch of their clothing. They go into their dressing rooms nude. From their socks up everything they wear in a play belongs to the theater."

An indication of what a gamble the theater can be found in a squib in this month's Theater Magazine, where it is said that the Selwyns lost $75,000 with Johannes Kreisler; Winthrop Ames, $50,000 with "Will Shakespeare," and Charles Dillingham, $75,000 with "The Dunch and Judy." Any of which sums would pay the gas and light bill in at least two given American homes for a year.

It is amusing to recall that toward the end of John Barrymore's run in "Hamlet," the second grave digger was arrested for bootlegging. He must have taken too seriously his partner's Shakespearean demand, "Go, get thee to Yaulghun and fetch me a stoup of liquor."

Perhaps Yaulghun was out and he decided to get it elsewhere.

Twenty Seasons Ago Today

"Ring John," with R. D. McLean, is the attraction at the Grand Opera House in San Francisco.

"They never make themselves up. The company has four make-up men, who get the same pay as Stanislavsky, and each is a portrait artist. If the play is historical, they have studied every picture of the characters involved. If it has to do with modern life, they have gone out into the streets and studied people."

"As they are clothed and made up, the actors turn themselves into the persons of the play. Moskvine enters the theater. It is the work, vacillating, kindly, snarling, trying to live up to the traditions of Ivan the Terrible, his father. The illusion is maintained behind the scenes as completely as on the stage."

"And if acting is a religion with the players, the Moscow Art Theater is a religion in Russia. For twenty-five years it has never had a vacation seat. When a new production is announced you go to the box office at a certain hour. There has been a long line since then. The first person doesn't get a chance to buy a seat."

Now that Mrs. Leslie Carter has been decided upon as the star to follow Robert Warwick at the Fulton theater along in May considerable interest in her past history is being evidenced by writers, apparently representing the younger generation of playwrights. In order that these and others may be advised of the theatrical background of Mrs. Carter, a brief resume of her career is hereby offered.

Born at Lexington, Kentucky, on June 10, 1882, Mrs. Carter made her New York debut at the Broadway on November 10, 1900, as Kate Graydon, the leading role in "The Ugly Duckling." In 1905 she appeared in Washington at Maryland College in "The Heart of Maryland." Later she took the play to New York and appeared in it for three years. It was this play she took to London.

In 1909 she appeared in New York at the Garrick in "Zaza" and at the Criterion in New York and at the Globe in the title role of "The Barry" in 1907. Other plays during that period were "The Tenth," "Two Women," "Smile," "Maggie," "The Day After Tomorrow," "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," "The Lady in Red," "Kassa" and "Vasta Herne."

In 1917 until 1921 Mrs. Carter was in retirement. She returned to appear as Lady Catherine in "The Circle" with John Drew. It will be in "The Circle" that she opens her engagement at the Fulton theater. Singularly, Mrs. Carter is not under any contract with her husband's name. She was married in 1906 to W. J. Carter.

Mrs. Carter will be heard by many here before she is seen. She is to broadcast a message of greeting to California this morning. The broadcasting will be done from the radio tower of the American telephone in New York.

Modjeska appeared in "The Girl of the Year" at the Fifth Avenue theater last night with Maurice Barrymore as the Duke.

Exits and Entrances

Speaking of the Fulton calls to mind the exits and entrances of that theater are soon to miss a familiar face. Miss Rose West, the assistant treasurer there for many years, has announced her engagement to Leo Edward Greenbaum.

Miss West, who recently established herself in local art circles.

Mary Ellis, late Norris of "The Merchant of Venice," leaves for Europe on April 24 to pursue her dramatic studies.

One also learns that John Drew's eyes are failing and that he cannot see.

J. F. ATTORNEY HELD FOR FRAUD

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—E. E. Rowell, San Francisco attorney, was arrested here yesterday on charges of conspiring with George S. Morton, of Los Angeles, to defraud a group of Los Angeles residents out of $200,000 in oil land transactions.

Rowell was arraigned on two charges of obtaining money under false pretenses and on one of issuing worthless checks, and held in total bail of $61,000. Morton's bail on one charge of obtaining money under false pretenses was fixed at $10,000. Neither provided bonds.

WOMAN HEADS REGENTS. SEATTLE, Wash., April 19.—The regents of the University of Washington elected Mrs. Ruth Kay McKee Kelson, Wash., their president here yesterday. Winlock W. Miller, Seattle, was chosen vice-president. Governor Hart attended the meeting.

Perhaps Yaulghun was out and he decided to get it elsewhere.

ORPHANS' PARTY SATURDAY WILL FEATURE 'TUT'

Tribune-Century Theater in Joint Show for Benefit of City Children.

The settings used in Jack Russell's great orphans' party, which will be shown at the Tribune-Century Theater on Saturday for the benefit of the orphans of the city, are the most elaborate ever seen in the city. The orphans' party, which will be shown at the Tribune-Century Theater on Saturday for the benefit of the orphans of the city, are the most elaborate ever seen in the city.

Herbert R. Harris, general manager of the theater, decided to stage the production several months ago and commissioned Charles Blair, scenic artist of the theater, to secure suitable sets for the interior construction of the tomb.

Orphans from the various orphanages of the city will be taken to and from the theater by the California Transit Company. Through an arrangement between the management of the playhouse and the Tribune, the first performance of the production on Saturday will be witnessed by the orphans, although the general public will also be admitted.

Jack Russell, the comedian, will be seen in a famous character, the little "no. 10" boy. In the plot of the vehicle, which was written by the executive staff of the theater, the little "no. 10" boy is taken to the tomb by a tourist and explores its ancient secrets.

SPiRiT of the STATE PRESS

Stockton, the Gateway City to the Great Central Valley of California and the capital of San Joaquin, the Top County of the State, is being honored by America's revered President! Stockton was good enough to receive the attention of a king. Is it worthy of the notice of a real President? We think so. Ulysses Simpson Grant thought so, too, and that was many years ago—long before we had really taken our place in the sun. William McKinley thought so, and Woodrow Wilson did also. Some body ought to whisper it into the ear of our own beloved Warren Harding that he'll miss something if he passes us up when he comes West; that is, providing he can be.

Babe Daniels, the movie star, in jail for ten days, is swathed in bandages. By some peculiar twist of fate, he is being attended by a state driver and badly injured. His picture, as shown in the newspapers, indicates that his physical hurts were extensive and painful, but it is doubtful if they annoyed him half so much as the knowledge that reckless drivers are still permitted the use of State highways.—Bakersfield Californian.

As far as the question of justice, the "law of war" goes, it is up to the electorate of Alameda county to vote the necessary bonds to carry the project forward.

H. C. Capwell presided at the luncheon and Charles A. McGee was the speaker of the day. Musical selections were rendered by Clarence Oliver.

In part, McGee spoke as follows: This is the day of Oakland's opportunity. The Eastbay district has cast off its provincial cloak and has fully emerged from its "Rip Van Winkle" slumber of half a century. What other American cities have done, Oakland and its sister communities can and will do. No longer are we content to bask in the reflected glory of San Francisco. Henceforth we shall stand upon our own feet in the effort to make our own contribution to the American city among American cities, endowed by nature as none other is endowed and fully realizing that what life blood is to the human heart, so is community spirit in the life of a municipality. We will hit and keep our stride, marching in step to the music of municipal progress and human service.

GROWTH IMPERATIVE. You and I are the trustees of civilization. In life there is no such thing as a static condition. We either move onward or backward to fulfill our apparent destiny or we go backward to stagnation and dissolution. He who conceives the alternative is a pessimist. The world is growing better and it is moving forward. Oakland is rapidly taking her place in the front ranks of American communities.

The Community Chest not only quickens us to a sense of duty, but it likewise affords us a rare opportunity—the opportunity of knowing and realizing within ourselves that in truth and in fact it is "more blessed to give than to receive," that it is part of human nature that the strong shall succor and protect the weak. What is it that causes any one of us to carry a babe from danger to safety, to help the lame, the halt and the blind over the rough and rugged ways of life? What is it that causes us to each of us to project ourselves into the lives of others that we may comfort them, sympathize with them, and assist them? It is the divine spark of Jesus Christ within the being of each of us.

How to Relieve Neuritis

If you want genuine, lasting relief from those keen, darting pains of neuritis, you must first restore the diseased nerves to sound, healthy conditions. Neuritis is nerve inflammation brought on by colds, injuries, bruises or infectious diseases. It usually centers its attack about the shoulder, or nape of neck, in the forearm, thigh or leg, and sometimes in the small of the back. For real relief, procure a bottle of Epps' Neuritis Tablets from your druggist and take two tablets before each meal. The result will amaze you. Never in your life have you felt so good.

No Settlement in Tax Law Squabble

Long discussion before the board of supervisors today failed to settle the question as to whether the county treasurer should check on certain figures compiled by the county auditor on tax redemptions. Ralph Hoyte, representing the district attorney's office, declared it was a matter for an auditor to determine whether the law was being complied with, he law, he said, simply stated that the auditor and the treasurer were both required to "keep an accurate account" without going into details as to what constituted an accurate account.

Tyro Orators Do Selves Proud in Cause of Chest

Business men who never have addressed more than envelopes; attorneys who never have ventured beyond the court room to make a public announcement; high school students whose faculties of speech always have been crippled by timidity, and women who never before found a fluent tongue except when at the telephone, all have undergone a sublime metamorphosis and are inundating the city with a veritable tidal flow of verbiage in the interests of the Community Chest. This is substantiated by Neil O'Grady, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the campaign committee.

Charles White, an attorney, last night made his first public address when he had harangued James with impetuosity, addressed courts with contempt, and turned scathing invective upon many a bold witness, but never before had he summoned sufficient courage to walk out on his own feet before a large audience and deliver himself of speech. His talk on the ethical and practical benefits of the Community Chest at the State theater is reported to have been one of the "knockout" brand.

Arguments Begun at Trial of Squillaci

Arguments began today in the trial of George Squillaci, charged with the murder of John Marrapo, whom he is alleged to have shot to death at 323 Myrtle street, January 6. Marrapo was both son-in-law and brother-in-law of the defendant. Deputy District Attorney Frank staff of District Attorney Ezra DeCoto, made the opening argument for the state, this being his first appearance before a jury as a prosecutor. He was followed by Attorney Henry A. Gabriel of San Jose, one of the attorneys for the defendant. At the afternoon session of court, Attorney Phil Carey will also be heard to the defense. Assistant District Attorney F. M. Shay will close the argument tomorrow morning.

SUPERVISOR TRAGEDY IN FLAYS PRICE OF MATERIAL BY BURIAL

Construction of Building at Del Valle Farm to Care for Tubercular Children Is Seriously Interfered With

"If the district attorney and the attorney-general would do their duty, charitable organizations, the county and the general public would not be the victims of building material gougers," declared Supervisor John F. Mullins when the Board of Supervisors today adopted a resolution calling for bids for construction of the Del Valle Farm building at Livermore for children whose physical tendency gives indication of tubercular tendency.

"The prices of building materials are beyond all reason," continued Mullins. "Conditions are such that a man can buy building material in San Francisco and ship it to Oakland at a cost less than he can buy it in Alameda county. Such conditions mean that when the county charitable organizations desire to construct buildings for children or other charitable purposes, they are compelled to expend sums much greater than should be."

The declaration was made by Supervisor Mullins during discussion of plans for the Del Valle Farm building presented to the chairman of the bureau, the chairman of the Del Valle Farm committee of the Alameda County Tuberculosis association. The plans as drawn by Architect Henry J. Meyers called for two dormitory buildings and a community hall building. The entire cost of the project is set at $55,000, according to estimates, but, as declared by Mullins, it is proposed to build at present only one wing on the hall building. This one wing of these two units will be $20,000.

In addressing the board Jones declared that the Tuberculosis Association had in hand $20,000 from the real sale, and expected to secure the other $10,000 from the real sale to be held this fall. Jones pointed out that, in addition to this, the Tuberculosis Association had already purchased the land for the Del Valle Farm at a cost of $12,500. This land has been deeded to the county. There is also in hand, Jones said, a fund of $15,500 for maintenance of the institution. He declared that the last unit to be built will accommodate 24 children, while additional children will be taken care of this summer in tents. He said the association figured on taking care of as many as 75 children during the next two years.

The board of supervisors today at the request of a committee representing the National Education Association convention, appropriated $2000 toward the entertainment with a promise of $2000 more out of next year's budget.

The committee, which appeared before the supervisors, consisted of Grant D. Miller, chairman; of the finance convention committee; Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter, Charles L. Smith, member of the finance committee, Edgar E. Mulvey, president of the Oakland Teachers' Association, and Orion E. Lucas, of the Chamber of Commerce.

"American Diet" Dangers Cited by Nutrition Expert

BERKELEY, April 19.—Indulgence by Americans in ill-assorted foods will have its effects not only on themselves but on future generations, according to Dr. Lafayette B. Mendell, Yale nutrition expert, who last night gave the second of a series of Hitchcock lectures in Wheeler hall on the University of California campus. His subject was "The Importance of Little Things" under a general topic, "The Newer Aspects of the Physiology of Nutrition."

Remarkable cures of goiter, which Mendell said was caused by a lack of iodine, were told by the nutrition expert, who explained that the addition of the iodine mineral to the diet of the individuals upon whom experiments were conducted resulted in restoring the thyroid gland to normal condition.

"The enthusiasm over this wonderful discovery has led to overdoing," declared Dr. Mendell. "This is not a case of 'little is good, more is better'; for more is a poison in this particular instance."

Farm Department in School to Be Settled

HAYWARD, April 19.—What the joint committee of the Alameda County Farm Bureau and the Hayward Chamber of Commerce will recommend to the board of trustees of the Alameda County High School in regard to the proposed establishment of an agricultural department at the school will be decided at a meeting of the committee tonight. Telephoned votes held by the chamber and among members of the farm bureau living within the limits of the high school district showed in both cases a pronounced majority in favor of the establishment of the department.

Long ago who took the part of the school-student lover, Dr. Meyer arranged to have the body of his former wife brought to Oakland for burial. Under his direction funeral services were held at the James P. Taylor undertaking parlors this morning, followed by cremation at the California Crematorium.

Telephone Company Says the City Has Increased 2.12 Per Cent in 1923 and Ranks 3d in This Respect

The number of telephones installed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company in homes, offices and business establishments of Oakland in the first two months of 1923, increased 2.12 per cent, according to the company's report filed yesterday with the State Railroad Commission.

The figures cited by the telephone company rank this city third in the increased installations of telephones, following Los Angeles and Berkeley.

On January 21, according to the report there were 21,316 telephones in Oakland, and on March 1, the mark had reached 21,790, an increase of 2.12 per cent. The percentage was highest in Berkeley, 4.65. Berkeley added 753 telephones during the two-month period.

The greatest increase on the development table was that of Astoria, the town recently destroyed by fire. The increase in telephones installed there during January and February is 14.48 per cent.

The figures for the large cities follow:

Los Angeles—Increase of 2.14 per cent.
San Francisco—Increase of 1.74 per cent.
Oakland—Increase of 2.12 per cent.
Portland—Increase of 1.14 per cent.
Seattle—Increase of 1.10 per cent.

BILLY SHADE EARNS GOOD DRAW AGAINST JACK REEVES

CALIFORNIA IS PREPARED FOR BIG DAY OF SPORT AGAINST WASHINGTON AND STANFORD

DUFFY TAKES NOD OVER GENE CLINE FOR FOURTH TIME

Joe Lynch Held to Draw Decision After Great Bout With Johnny Farr; Barrieu Tames Tom King In Give-and-Take Battle.

By DOUG. MONTELL.

Jack Reeves was unable to put enough in Billy Shade's pantry to earn a decision in the main event of Mons. Tommy Simpson's weekly pugilistic party last night at the Auditorium, Referee Al Wainwright cutting circles in the air at the end of the up-and-down bout to indicate that the scion of the Shade family had given as many as he had taken. Which was a suitable verdict for the final fistic encounter of the evening.

For two rounds Reeves played upon the digestive apparatus of Mr. Shade's son to such an extent that it appeared doubtful whether Shade would open up sufficiently to retain his share of the honors. It might well be said that several of Reeves' fondlings were lower than is prescribed in the accepted code, although all low blows were apparently unintentional.

After being cautioned twice for hitting low Reeves raised his sights in the third and fourth rounds, with the result that Shade escaped practically unscathed while several gentle reminders that there are two sides to every argument were forcibly impressed upon the Reeves nose by the aforesaid Billy. By his work in the final round Shade well earned a draw after having gotten away to a slow and ineffective start.

Duffy Repeats Against Cline.

In the semi-final event, Jimmy Duffy the pride of Harold Algenon Broom, tucked away his fourth straight decision over Gene Cline. Cline meant well, went four aggressive rounds and did some capable work in the third canto but Duffy not only outboxed him the entire distance but landed telling punches where they did the most good.

Duffy stepped fast for the first two rounds and built up such a big lead that Cline would have had to floor the West Oakland boy to do any good for himself.

Coming to the realization that he could not outbox Duffy at the start of the third Cline carried the round with a rain of well-executed rights and lefts but Duffy steered his feet out of danger in the fourth and Cline's wild swings had to be content with bringing about a series of clinches which did no marked good, save to allow Duffy to pummel him considerably while in close contact.

Lynch Appeared To Be Winner.

It appeared as though Joe Lynch had redeemed his last go with Johnny Farr for the conqueror of Johnny Buff looked to have carried the first three rounds. The draw decision took into consideration Farr's come-back in the final period but despite his efforts Lynch looked to have carried the evening.

Lynch opened up fast and sent Farr hither and thither during the first two rounds, stepping away from anything that looked dangerous and landed often enough to stop Farr in his tracks.

In the third, Lynch continued and had a shade. Farr opened a last minute attack in the final round that made a profound impression on two of those entrusted with rendering the verdict. The draw did justice to Farr's fairly showing but appeared to have ignored much of Lynch's early work.

Barrieu Tames Wild Man King.

Frank Barrieu and Tom King staged the extra main event of the evening, King attacking with the ferocity of the w. k. wild man from Boreno, a point adjacent to his native haunt of which he is champion. Australia. Barrieu studied King in the first, checked him in the second and tamed him completely in the third, winning with such ease that a decision was hardly necessary. The old cut over King's eye was opened in the second round and he was considerably messed up before the affair ended.

Russ Pearce gave a neat exhibition of what science can do when he stepped rings around Tim Callahan and carried every round. Callahan has yet to land a punch on Pierce while Russ hit the high spots coming and reached around him on the outside.

All Pierce from start to finish, Callahan being kept at arm's length throughout four good rounds of boxing on the part of Pierce. One Knockdown Stopped Dunn.

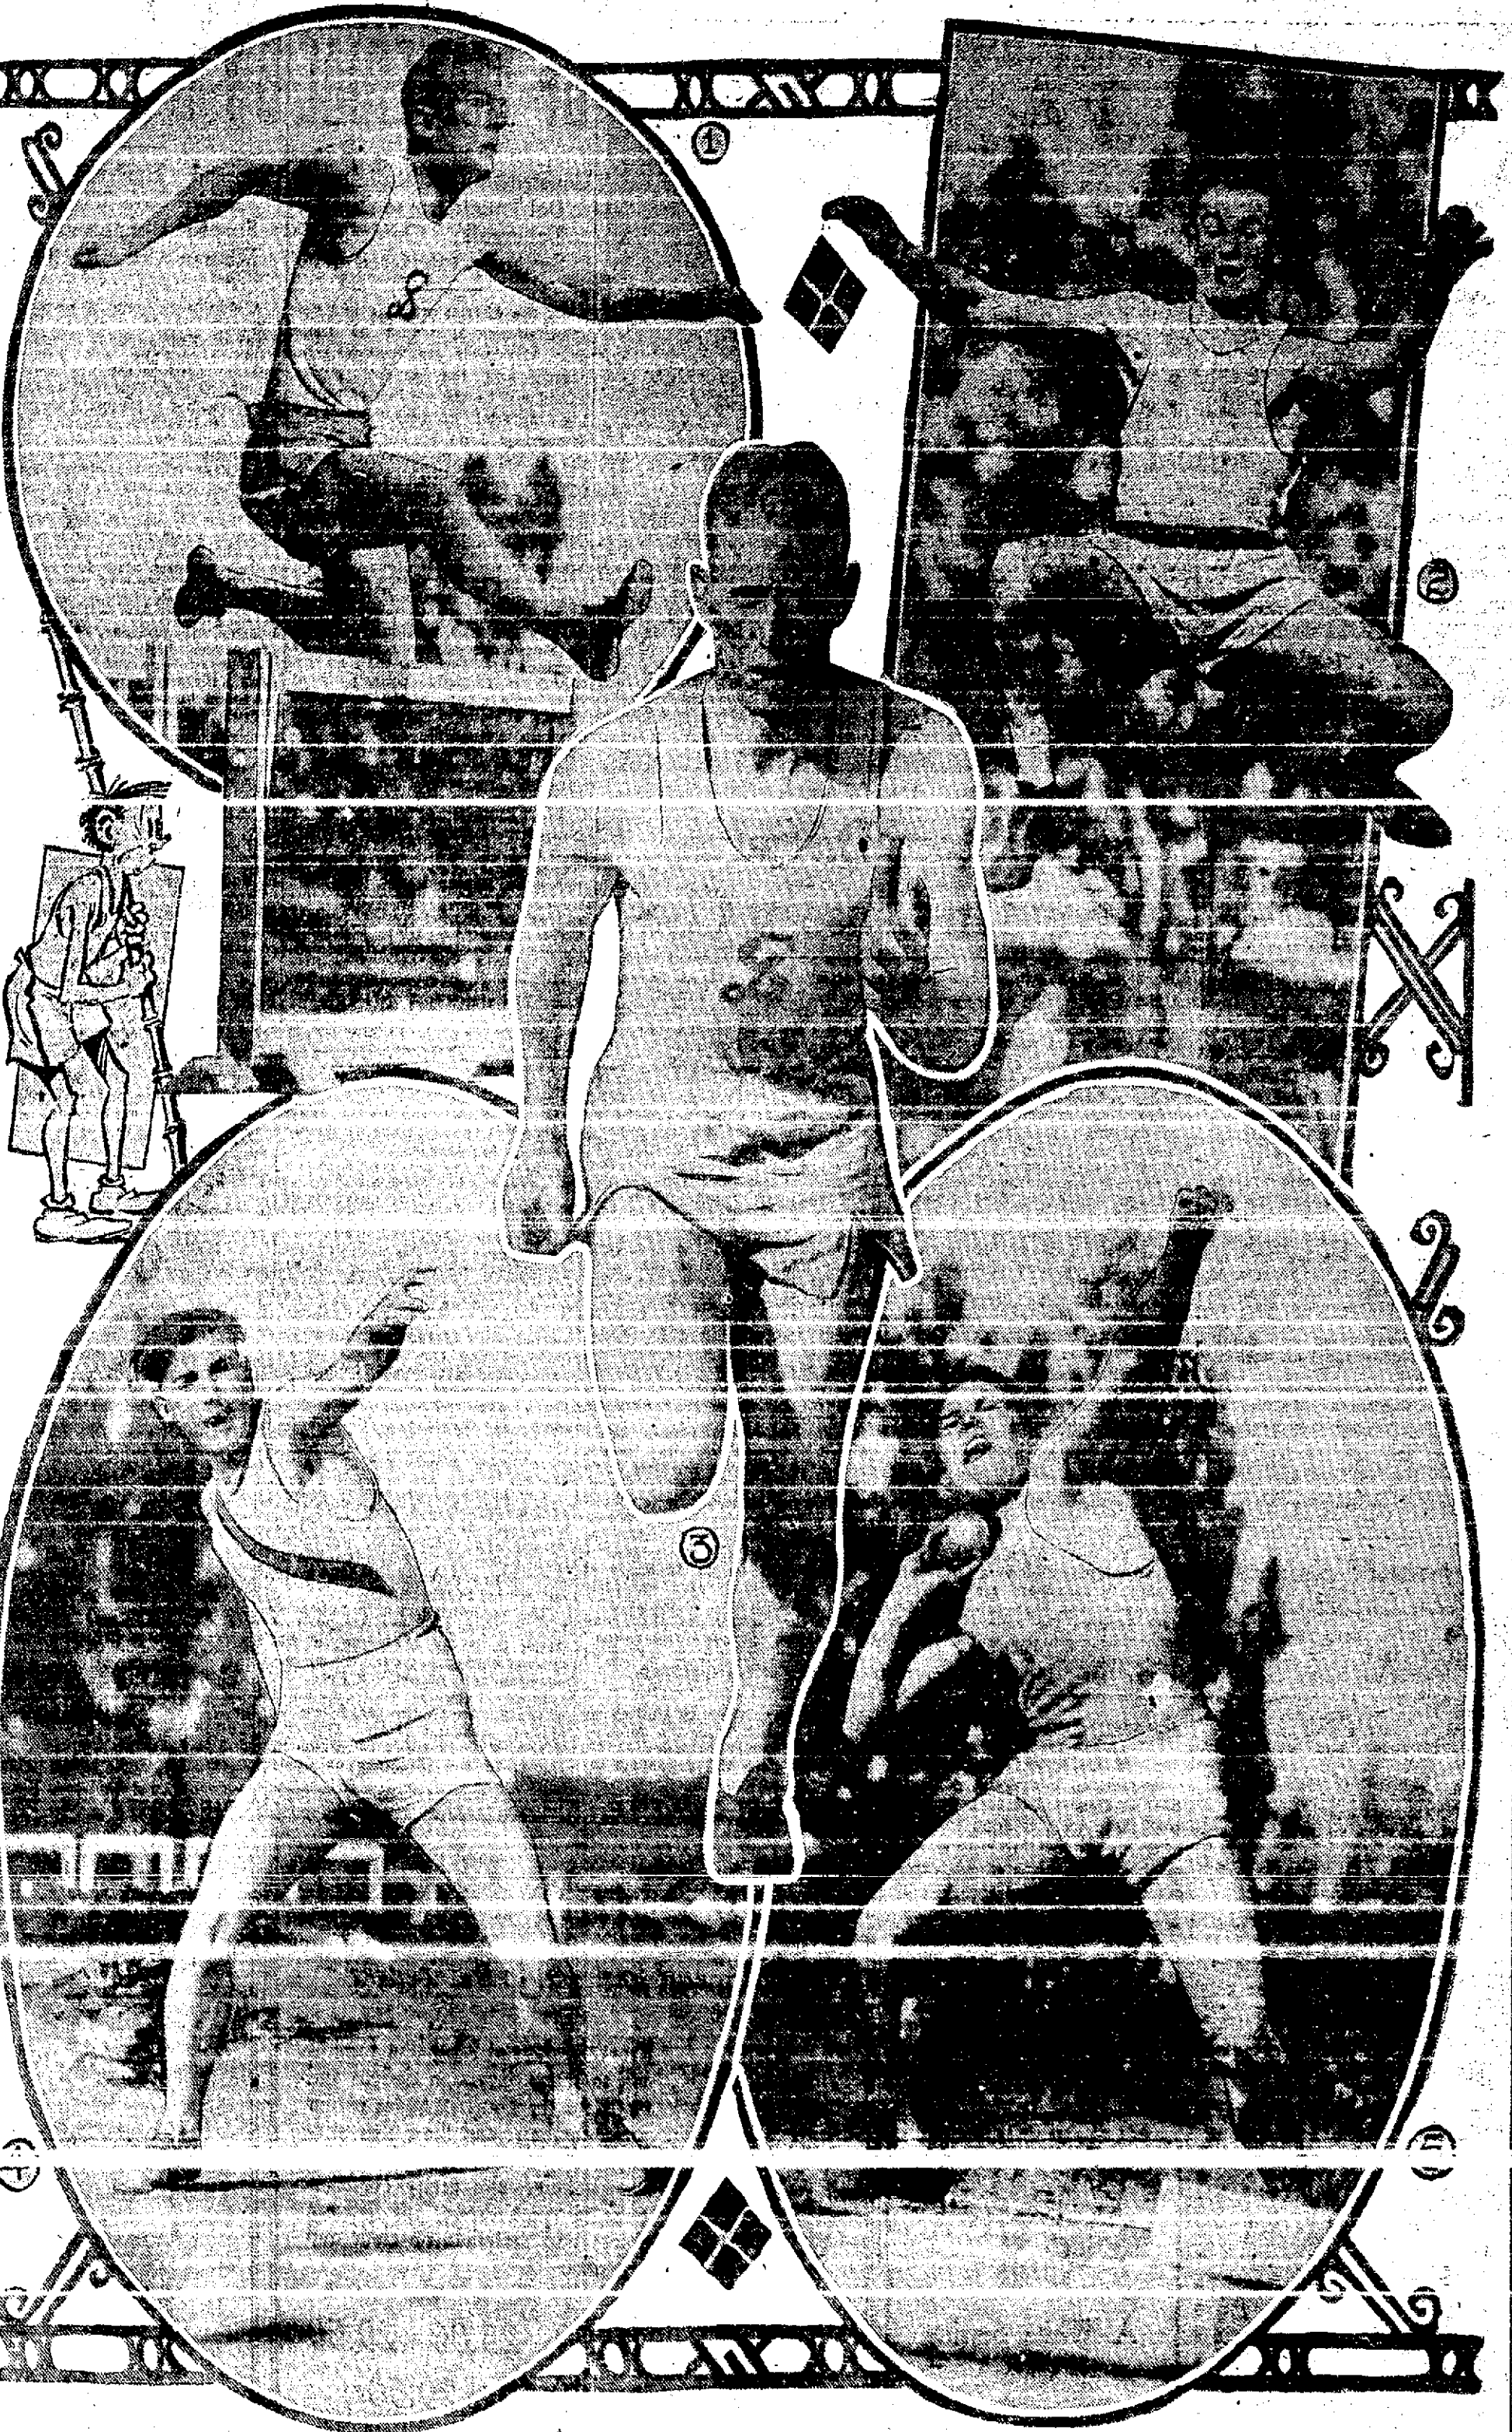

Joe Dunn might have done well against Stanley Willis had not Willis eased a well timed punch into the Dunnummy in the second period. Willis sent Dunn down for a count of nine with a left to the stomach late in the second round and from then on Dunn's ginger, so apparent in round the first, departed. In the third Willis worked wonders with body punches and Dunn only lasted out the final round on his nerve. Gamesness was the most notable asset in the Portland boy's makeup and Willis well earned the decision.

In the curtain raiser Cap Nelson tickled Dick Farley too often for the visitor to earn a third but the short end. After an even first round Cap pounded his way for two easy sessions and held his own again in the final lap, winning handily.

Elly Brackett was the third man in the ring for the three preliminaries. George Brown endeavored to keep the combatants apart in the next three, while Al Wainwright refereed the Shade-Reeves encounter.

Stanford's Hopes of Victory Are Pinned on These Stars

Hope for a Stanford victory over California in the dual track meet between the two universities, which takes place on the California oval next Saturday, lies in several coming stars who have shown unusual promise in the last few meets but who have, as yet, to face the west coast against the Bruins. A few of the Stanford veterans are well known to local followers of collegiate athletics, among whom is CAPTAIN LANE (upper left), Stanford's hope in both hurdle events. Among the "dark horses" is LEW MINSKY (upper right), a broad jumper who may edge into the point column unexpectedly. In the center is "BLINK" WILLIAMSON, one of Stanford's two premier 440 men who should place first or second. At the lower left is JAMES ARTHUR, a coming field man who is a hope in the weights. LAWRENCE RICHARDS (at the lower right) is another Cardinal field star in the weights expected to grab points.

Bruins Plan Final Events Of Sport Year

Baseball, Track and Crew To Form Athletic Festival On Saturday

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 19.—Winding up the spring sport season at home in a blaze of glory, California is in readiness for the sports of Saturday, which will crown the athletic triumphs of the year for the Bears should the Blue and Gold wave victorious in the three big events of the day. Successful in football, in tennis, in basketball, in baseball, all that remains for California is prove their supremacy over Stanford on the land and over Washington on the water. THAT'S ALL.

SOME LITTLE TASK confronting the Bruins. To Washington will fall the honor of opening the ceremonies of the day. Crew, an event witnessed by local fans once in two years, will attract considerable attention during the hours of the forenoon. Starting at 9:35 a. m. the rival Varsity will go through their three mile race as per schedule.

Neither has any marked advantage. Washington is possessed of a little in weight and far more in experience. California can claim but the advantage of rowing on their home waters and the Bruins have had the experience of rowing over the actual course during the year while Washington knows only of the waters on which the race will be held.

WILL BE GOOD RACE. The Freshman race, which follows the varsity contest, will be an exhibition of fight with the rowers more or less uncertain. Both crews are expected to be the best turned out by California and Washington for first year boats in many moons and the youngsters, sensing the importance of their position, are apt to be a bit nervous and off guard. But it will be a neck and neck race, every bit as interesting to watch as the varsity contest.

Starting the festivities of the afternoon will come the Stanford-California dual track meet. Fans who remember the last year's year will appreciate the possibility of the two institutions scrapping for each point.

MARKED ADVANTAGE. California appears to have a marked edge in the events of the field while Stanford's advantage, claimed but not conceded, is in the track events where the Cards, according to the best dope, should turn in the majority of the points, all things being equal.

Following the track meet Stanford and California fans will adjourn to the ball field where the rival varsity lines will fight it out for the final game of the season. Stanford, defeated in the first two games, has but scant hope of achieving any glory here but after their exhibition last Saturday in holding the Bears for a two-inning game tying the score through boots in the ninth inning, the game has possibilities of being a fitting conclusion to the events of the day.

U. S. Should Easily Defend Tennis Trophy

Much can happen between now and next September to disable or wreck the team, but from the present outlook the American tennis team should have very little trouble in successfully defending the Davis Cup. Australia, Spain and Japan were considered the most dangerous challengers for the cup until recent happenings, but they are no longer considered as more than a threat.

Figuring they had no veteran combination to hold its own against Tilden, Johnston and Richards, the Australian association has decided on building for the future and will send a team of youngsters out for experience alone.

The Alonso brothers have established a residence in Philadelphia and they will not return to Europe to represent Spain in the preliminary rounds. Without them the strength of the Spanish team is reduced almost 50 per cent.

Kumage will not be able to play on the Japanese team, and without him the Nippon team will have no chance, as it failed once with him.

Real Discus Star

SEATTLE, April 19.—In Percy Ervine, a sophomore, field event fans at the University of Washington see a second Gus Pope. Ervine, who is 6 feet 2 inches tall and weighs 155 pounds, has hurled the discus 136 feet 9 inches in practice for a relay carnival at the university, April 28. This is four feet better than Pope, who was national amateur athletic union champion for three years, did in conference meets in his sophomore year.

Out of Town Entries Delay Tourney Start

Patterson of Richmond First To Sign; Others Will Be In the List Soon

Manager Tom Lawler of the Maryland bowling alleys announced this morning that upon request of Richmond alleys the start of the annual TRIBUNE diamond medal play had been put off a week. Patterson of Richmond entered the annual bowling classic and at least a dozen other Richmond stars desire to enter. It will be impossible for these bowlers to be reached until over the week-end.

Accordingly the drawing of the first round, scheduled to take place last night, has been postponed until Wednesday, April 25.

TIME YET TO ENTER. This delay will not in any way interfere with the chances of those among the local bowlers who have already signed for the tournament and in as much as many of the local stars who had signified their intention of shooting, had not filed entries up until last night it was decided that local bowlers, as well as out of town candidates for the TRIBUNE diamond medal, would be allowed up until next Wednesday night.

This additional time should allow many, who have been out of town, to return for the big annual event.

WATCH TOM LAWLER. Among the stars of the local alleys to sign last night were Tom Lawler of the Auditorium and Tom Lawler of the Bowling Center.

Wainwright bids fair to make his opponents step along at close to a 200 average to eliminate him from the tournament, having been smashing the maples at a powerful clip for the past month.

Tom Lawler, who finished as high average man in the Alameda County Native Sons league as the individual star of the Piedmont team, and who has since signed as anchor man of the P. T. & T. Co. team in the Oakland Handicap league, is probably the most dangerous of the newcomers who were not in last year's diamond medal tournament. Lawler ranks with Rossi, Nichols, Whitestone, O'Toole and Sepper as the field to be defeated in order to win.

LUKE STRONG ROOTER.

Luke Campbell, a recent addition to the Grand Furor's bowling colony and one of the strongest rooters of the local alleys, said last night that he would be on deck to make the stars step to win the medal or any of the prizes for merit.

Campbell is not only a Class A bowler, but is a whole rooting section in himself.

E. W. Gregg, a former Santa Cruz star and late of the Texas Tommies in the San Francisco and Suburban Class AA league, will be among the leading lights to participate. Gregg, who lives in Richmond, was the second from that city in last year's tournament.

Al Tremer, who is one of the leaders of the Southern Pacific team, and his teammate, George Porterfield, are another pair from the Auditorium alleys who will be seen in the first round of play. Porterfield will be in the race until the last five, according to Manager Harry Watkins of Bremers, who claims that Porterfield is the best of the local bowling colony in competition of this sort.

With a week of additional time to sign there is yet time for the delinquent to sign. Additional names who will be on the list, the complete list of which may be obtained from Manager Real at the Maryland alleys.

Track Tickets on Sale at Spalding's

Tickets for the California-Stanford track meet at Berkeley Saturday are now on sale at A. G. Spalding Brothers, San Francisco and Oakland, Elmer Arms Company, San Francisco, and the graduate athletic manager's office, U. C. campus. The price of the tickets for the Southern Pacific crew train which leaves Fourteenth and Franklin streets Saturday morning at 9:30 and follows the California-Washington races along the estuary, are also on sale at the above named places. Price of tickets, 25c.

WRESTLERS TO MEET. FOR ANCHORAGE, APRIL 19.—Wrestlers of the Los Angeles Athletic club and the Olympic club of San Francisco will meet here

Australians May Default to Hawaii

HONOLULU, April 19.—(By the Associated Press).—A. L. Castle, president of the Hawaii Tennis Association, yesterday said that in the event Australia defaults with Hawaii in the Davis cup match play, the Hawaiian team would go to the mainland to play the winner of the Canada-Japan match. It was reported from Melbourne that the Australian team would be unable to compete because Patterson and Wood, the mainstays of the Antipodean team, could not come to Hawaii.

EASY FOR DEMPSEY. The New York Giants' "second" team being shy a first baseman for tonight club loaned John McGraw the services of Lee Dempsey, who wasn't wanted by San Antonio anyway.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS

The championship of the Alameda County Athletic League may be decided tomorrow when Hayward and Alameda high school baseball teams tangle at Lincoln Park in Alameda. Both squads are tied for the top rung and, according to pre-season dope are evenly matched in defense and offense. The "farmers" have two rattling good chuckers in Miles Richmond and "Lefty" Rose, while Alameda has Heather or Biggs. Richmond will probably work against Coach Butler's outfit, with Heather doing the honors for Alameda.

Two more games will take place in the Oakland Athletic League tonight. The Blue and White dropped their last practice game to the New York and Marine boys a tall

American Student Wins Heavy Title

LONDON, April 19.—(By Associated Press).—Edward P. Egan, the American student at Oxford who holds the Olympic light heavyweight boxing championship last night, defeated F. J. Huiks, of St. Pancras, in the third round at Alexander palace, thus winning the boxing association heavyweight championship.

Egan trained for the bout in Dublin, acting as sparring partner for the thirty-ninth time the championship had been contested and Egan is the first American to win it.

Egan competed also in the light heavyweight class, but was beaten in a bout in this class by J. J. Mitchell, holder of the title.

Last Night's Fight Results

STERLING, Colo., April 19.—Don "Terror" Long, of Colorado Springs, and Earl Furryear, Denver bantamweight, fought a six-round draw here last night. Long weighed approximately 124 pounds.

PUEBLO, Colo., April 19.—Bud Hamilton, of Denver, Colo., knocked out Joe Mandell, of Chicago, in the second round of a scheduled twelve-round match here last night. Hamilton was the master as the fight after one was over seconds of the first round. They are featherweights.

RES. MOINES, Ia., April 19.—Harold Plude was awarded the decision over Johnny Harris in an uncontested bout here last night. Both are featherweights.

I could not think of anything he had done so I had to stop chasing him.

Tomorrow is Friday. You'll see today that she is going to get up a crowd and go May walking when this month is gone and we will find some wild lilacs and blue and violet and change to a tree with white and other dogs. It don't make any difference how wild a flower is it stays right where it is at till someone picks it.

I told Youniss that she does not like anything that is really wild, and she spoke kind of low and said there is a wild boy that she likes a lot.

When she said that I felt as good that I have been chasing him a mile till he got on the other side of a tree and asked me what he had done to me. I could not think of anything he had done so I had to stop chasing him. While we were in school it got as cold as everything and not teacher said she thought the weather man was getting ready to ruin the peach crop, that it would probably snow before morning. I wanted to know about the weather man, but I did not want to stay after school and ask her.

When we went down Mush was out in the yard and I asked him what she meant by the weather man. He says there is a man that sits up on top of a high building in town and he can smell the wind and tell what the weather is going to be tomorrow and he gets good pay for doing it.

I think probably Mush is a liar but if there is a man that does that I would like to take him Miles up there sometime. His father works in the stink factory where they make fertilizer and Bunt has to wear out his old coat if I would get him near the weather man, and get him warmed up, and he got a whiff of the breeze, he would tell everybody the world was coming to an end.

A Question of Accuracy

TODAY'S SHORT STORY BY Ad Schuster

THE office of Old Accuracy was just off of Main Street. In it, with the aid of Miss Tripp and two girls, Old Accuracy transacted all of the business which concerned a fairly number of such in loans, mortgages, insurance and loans. Occasionally someone stopped to fix a notary's seal on a paper or issue a fishing license. It was a business of many details, but sooner or later they all came to the desk and the book of Miss Tripp for accounting. The Misses Tripp, for accuracy, had been friends for years and as for accuracy, enjoyed the privilege of quarreling.

The sign on the door read "Accuracy and Tripp," the Ackerman standing for the senior partner, whose exact habits were known by which all Misses knew him.

"He is so particular," he was heard, "the world has a girl quack as a wink for forgetting to cross a t."

The records did not show Ackerman had dismissed any employee, but had three hours a minutes taken of the office proceedings they would have reached Miss Tripp's desk as the old man's hobby.

"There is no excuse for carelessness," Old Accuracy would say. "I demand a wrong way, and one is as easy as the other. What I demand in my service, from the lowest, and he looked at Miss Tripp, who was sitting at the place, "to the highest, absolute accuracy." His gaze by this time was fastened upon Miss Elwell, the other half of the working force and "highest" he tried before." Mr. Tripp paused and looked out of the dusty window.

"The home town paper," he never been strong on golf because one in the town, except me and one or two others, played at it, but they made arrangements to have a dispatch sent from Oakway carrying the results. When I heard about that I felt right proud and also thankful I wouldn't have to telephone Marie.

"It was a great game, but you see our links was not much better than a golf course, and I was not up on the latest tricks in hazards and bunkers. I didn't do so bad, at that. It was the other fellows who did better."

The scene came into the home town newspaper by wire. There was a list of us, with the number of strokes we took following. It read like this: Jones, 11; Peters, 12; Campbell, 13; and, finally, Tripp, 17. I could just see Marie, reading that at the other end and hesitated somewhat before I took the train for home.

"Well, when I got home Marie met me with a kiss and slipped me a copy of the paper. The headlines said I won the game. She had a good, warm smile that any of the others and my mark of 17 would stand for some time as a record of my links. So you see, I was married—and it was the inaccuracy of that paper which was responsible for the twenty years of happiness that followed."

Miss Tripp looked at him as if she were a girl, and as for accuracy, sneaked out for his walk around the block.

"That ought to hold him for a while," Marie said as he walked don't know a golf stick from an Allenstock. And, as for Marie, had there been one, she would have married me for my good looks."

RAGGEDY ANN and Raggedy Andy sat as sad as Betty Bonnet String and the Too ack quee. Raggedy Ann had lost her wonderful magic apron.

"I wouldn't have been so bad, if the apron had only been an ordinary every day, common apron, but to lose a wonderful magical apron! One from which Betty Bonnet String could shake almost anything she wished for, that made them all very sad. And as they rode through the deep, deep woods towards the Too ack quee's home, wished more than ever that kind little Betty Bonnet String had her magic apron back again. Because, the farther they went the thirstier they became, and there wasn't a single soda water tree along their path."

"I just only had my magical apron!" Betty Bonnet String said. "I wish for about six ice cream sodas please!"

And this only made the Raggedies and the Too ack quee feel sadder and thirstier.

"Just as soon as we get to my home, I shall ride back to the tree with an axe and cut a door in the queer little old woman's tree!" the Too ack quee promised. "Then, when I catch her, I'll take the magic apron away from her and give it back to Betty Bonnet String."

"Hurrah for the Too ack quee!" Raggedy Andy and Raggedy Ann cried. "He will get it back for you, Betty Bonnet String!"

"I will all return with the Too ack quee and watch him chop a hole in the queer old woman's tree," Betty Bonnet String said. So as soon as they reached the Too ack quee's home and the Too ack quee had found his axe, they all got upon their bicycles and returned to the tree home of the queer little old woman.

Then the Too ack quee took off his coat and showed his pants for ice cream sodas right away! Betty Bonnet String as she gave the apron a shake.

"Hi! Hi! That's the time I found you!" the old woman cried as she ran out and picked up the Too ack quee's axe. "I still have the good magic apron."

Having more money than was good for any man, he conceived the idea of raising redwood sheep. Little realizing all the trouble he was storing up for his daughter, and it was because of this beautiful young girl that the old man Grant was tolerant.

Chilo's History of the HUMAN RACE

by Ramon C. Siffman

THE FIRST TRIP "ROUND THE WORLD." The people of the "Robber Islands" (the Ladrone) could not speak English, or any other language of Europe. To make the white men understand they had to use signs. Some of their signs it seems they said: "You white men are a great surprise to us! We thought we were the only people in the world!" A spending a few days amid the islands, Magellan gave orders for his fleet to sail onward. About a thousand miles to the east the shores of two more islands were sighted. They were members of the Philippine group. Magellan landed on one of the islands with some of his men and set up two tents. For almost two days no people came near them. Then a boat filled with nine savage men came toward the shore. They showed signs of gladness over meeting the white men. Magellan gave his visitors red caps, mirrors, combs and bells. It was not long before they returned to the coast with presents of fish, bananas, coconuts and a jar of wine, made from palm juice. To show honor to the natives, Magellan took them aboard one of his ships and showed them pepper, ginger, nutmeg, gold and other things he had on board. Cannon were fired. The natives became so afraid that they tried to jump out of the ship. Their fears were calmed, however, and they left quietly, saying they would return. True to their promise, they came back in a day or two. Again they brought presents—concombs, wine, oranges and a cock. After nine days spent in this region, the three ships set sail again. It was decided to anchor near another island of the Philippine group. In a short while a boat with eight men came out from shore. It was paddled to the side of Magellan's own ship. The men were brown-skinned, like other natives of the island group. They feared to come aboard, but Magellan tied a red cap and some trinkets to a piece of wood, and tossed it all down to them. The natives seemed very pleased, and went back to shore. In a short while they returned with another boat, containing a "king," or "head chief." I must explain that a "head chief" was the ruler over several tribes. Magellan soon made friends with the head chief, who offered to give him a bar of gold and a basketful of ginger. For once, white men were able to refuse gold! The next day Magellan sent a man ashore to ask the head chief for food. The request was granted and soon the sailors were enjoying rice, mangoes, fish and other food. The head chief himself came on board with the load of food.

SENATORS MAKE DEBUT BY DEFEATING OAKLAND CLUB

SEALS RETAIN LEAD IN RACE BY BUNCHING THEIR HITS OFF "LEFTY" SCHROEDER FOR WIN

YELLOW HORSE PUTS END TO OAK RALLY BY FANNING KNIGHT

Ray Brubaker and Frank Wetzel Make Boots That Help Charley Pick's Senators Shove the Local Tossers Deeper Into Coast League Cellar.

By EDDIE MURPHY.

The Oaks dug their way deeper into the Coast League cellar by taking a 6 to 4 beating from the Sacramento Senators when Colonel Charles Pick introduced them to the local fans yesterday afternoon. Ray Brubaker helped the Oaks sliding along by playing poor ball around third base, but the Oaks might have been excused from any of the blame had not Charley Pick showed good judgment in changing pitchers, and sending Moses Yellow Horse to the mound to fan Jack Knight, a pinch-hitter, when runners were on first and second in the eighth inning, and the Oaks needed only one run to put them in the lead. Harry Brown, the Senators' new centerfielder was also in the lime-light in the same inning by making a nice catch of Del Baker's line drive to center. Had Brown not planted himself for the drive, things would have been disastrous for the Senators, as three were on the bags at the time.

Paul Murphy, Card Distance Man, Ruled Out

Brubaker Drops Ball To Put Eley in Jam.

Denny Eley, who looked better yesterday than he has since the start of the season, opened a rally for the Oaks in the first frame by leading off with a triple. Cooper drew a walk, and stole second after Ted Cather fanned. Lafayette also walked to fill the bags, and Wetzel bunted a pretty hit to right-center for a single, scoring Eley and Cooper. "Coco" McGinnis, the Senators' shortstop, grabbed Brubaker's line drive over short and turned it into a double play.

Yellow Horse Fans On

Clinton Prough kept the hits scattered from the first until the time he retired in the eighth, but in the seventh inning he poured them on. "Red" Smith led off with a triple to center field. This looked like a good play for some one to bat for Eley, as none were out and the Oaks needed some kind of rally to get things going and live up to the fans. But Eley went to bat and fanned. Smith scored on Willie's infield out.

Cather Is Back at the Second Bag Doing Work

The ball game went to the Senators in the ninth. Kopp laid down a bunt, and the Senators were in position to win. The Oaks needed only one run to put them in the lead. Harry Brown, the Senators' new centerfielder was also in the lime-light in the same inning by making a nice catch of Del Baker's line drive to center. Had Brown not planted himself for the drive, things would have been disastrous for the Senators, as three were on the bags at the time.

McManus Improves As Second Sacker

Every critic who looked at the St. Louis Browns down went into enthusiasm as they saw the improvement in Marty McManus. He is being heralded as the successor of Eddie Collins to step ahead of Rogers Hornsby. McManus will have to move some, but he has always given promise of getting there in the American League.

Trojans Have Chance to Win Southern Meet

REDLANDS, Cal., April 19.—The Southern Pacific Amateur Athletic Union track and field championships at the University of Redlands Saturday will see a number of strong teams in action.

At present several squads appear to have good chances of emerging victorious. The University of Southern California will enter both varsity and freshmen squads. The Fresh appear to have the best balanced and possibly the strongest team. The varsity will be weakened by the absence of its captain, Charles W. Paddock, who probably would win points.

Frye Will Grapple J. Grella Tonight

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—Clayton Frye, formerly of the Multnomah Athletic Club of Portland, Ore., and formerly middleweight amateur boxing champion, will meet J. Grella, a Southern California, middleweight champion, at the Los Angeles Athletic Club tonight. Seven bouts between Frye and Grella, and the members also are on the program.

Automobile Makers See New Record For Spring Trade

PREVIOUS RECORD IN OIL TRADE IS DISTANCED

14 States Ship 20,200 Cars, But North California Is Below Last Season.

All previous records for oil shipments were broken this season, the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics estimated today.

The end of the old oil season is near. Shipments have been gradually decreasing to 10 cars a week. Within the past week the bulk of oil supplies came from storage in New York and Massachusetts, most of the mid-western stock having been cleaned up.

The season's output for the fourteen late or main crop states has exceeded last season's by 6800 cars, and is 1300 more than the 1920-21 season, which set the highest previous record.

Indiana and Ohio were the heavy shippers this season, sending 4575 and 4450 cars respectively. For Indiana that was an increase of about 150 per cent over last season and one-third more than in 1920-21. For Ohio it was a gain of 156 per cent over the 1921-22 season and nearly 40 per cent more than two years ago.

New York shipped fewer oil cars during either of the last two seasons, the total April 14 being about 2675 cars. Massachusetts, with 1280 cars, showed an increase of 18 per cent over last year. Michigan marketed four times as many oil cars last season, the total reaching 1750 cars. Colorado shipments increased to nearly 700 cars, but the Northern California output was only 2300 cars, much less than the last two seasons.

That advice of food experts to eat plenty of lettuce for its health-giving qualities is being heeded by people of the state is given evidence in a report just issued by the University of California's department, that since 1916 the lettuce crop of California has increased more than 144 per cent.

In 1922 people of various parts of the country liked lettuce so much that they were able to consume 9572 carloads, the college report discloses. Of this amount the Imperial Valley shipped about 48 per cent. By the end of the 1922 season, which is almost over, more than 6000 carloads will have been shipped from the Imperial Valley, say agricultural experts.

That California lettuce growers are alive to the importance of meeting conditions is declared to be evidenced by the fact that a bill is now before the legislature which will establish new grades under which head lettuce must have a diameter of ten inches to be entitled to a "size" name. This means, say college experts, that the very best cultural and growing methods must be followed.

394,622 GIVEN CHEST ON SECOND DAY OF CAMPAIGN

Speakers Urge Donors to Look Upon Work As Whole.
Forget Prejudices.

those who are helpless in the morning and the coming of life, would along with the Community Chest, but in addition, there are the forty other agencies, running the gamut of human nature, and who will deny rights to a cause would turn his back upon the living truth of life, would deny that he is his brother's keeper, and flout the philosophy and the teachings of the Father and the Son. It was Christ who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." It was God who created man with the finger of truth, "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

This is your campaign and mine. It affects each of us equally, and no one can shirk the burden with the gift expression. "Let the other fellow do it." We know not the day and the hour when adversity may overtake us when a loved one of ours will need assistance.

The Community Chest will put the community of Oakland on record, the Community Chest is not only an investment that pays tremendous returns to the individual and the city, but it is like insurance; insurance not only for the community, but it is insurance for each one of us.

Nor shall anyone, because of antipathy and prejudice against a single unit or agency in the welfare work of the community, be so narrow and locked in vision as to refuse his talent to the remaining agencies.

Suppose everyone said, "I don't care," and refused to emerge from the shadows of indifference, and life itself? A brother in my profession recently expressed the thought in verse:

"Suppose nobody cared more than you and I
And everyone passed just heedlessly by
With never a thought and never a care
For the misery and want awaiting there
Just suppose nobody cared!
Suppose nobody cared more than you and I
And it was loved one of ours that they passed by
With never a thought and never a care
For child, youth, and old age awaiting there
Suppose nobody cared!
And it was we that they passed by
With never a thought and never a care
For you and I awaiting there,
Suppose nobody cared!"

Man's greatest good is found in service to his fellow man. We are seeking to lift the burden from the shoulders of those unable to bear it. We are aiming at the ultimate goal of human endeavor—service.

Sacrifice, courage, untiring devotion to the cause, teamwork on the part of the volunteers here assembled from now until the final hour of the campaign will carry us across the line and pick a goal. Oakland will not fail, nor will her sister communities, and on the night of the 27th there shall be written across our sky in letters of shining light the words, "Success Service."

Then shall we rest triumphant. Then will Oakland have come into her own.

Y.W.C.A. President Pleads Cooperation

Hearty cooperation in the Community Chest drive was promised by Mrs. Miles E. Fox, the newly elected president of the Y. W. C. A., who expressed the belief today that this new method of financing Oakland's social agencies will prove a success.

"I regret that I could not be personally in the campaign," said Mrs. Fox. "I am forced to remain at my desk at the association building because of the illness of Miss Alice Brookman, the general secretary. Mrs. M. A. Fox, the vice-president of the Y. W. C. A., will represent the association in the campaign."

In connection with the Community Chest drive "TV" leaders called attention to the importance of this organization among Oakland's social agencies. They pointed out that the "TV" keeps open house for those in need of service and that it serves many thousands of girls and women each year.

The International Institute, with branches in West Oakland and in the Oriental quarter, caters to the social, educational, and cultural needs of the women of many races. The main building in Webster street offers the comforts of a first-class hotel, a swimming pool and meeting places for the scores of members of the "TV" girls have formed for social diversion, education and spiritual uplift.

"We claim a right to the attention of the people of the community only in proportion to our actual service to the population," said Mrs. Fox. "We claim that service is great and those who have investigated the figures have agreed with us. Many believe the Y. W. C. A. occupies a unique place in community life, a niche that certainly is not entirely filled by any other existing institution."

Boy Walks Half Mile To Make Donation

Kenneth Yancy, a little boy living at 153 Ninth street, walked a half mile to Community Chest headquarters Wednesday afternoon to do his bit for Oakland's needy. The subscription was received by C. J. Ewing, campaign secretary.

"This 25-cent subscription represents a whole lot more than many of the thousand-dollar subscriptions," said Ewing, "in making his subscription Kenneth said:

"I'm rich, but I wanted to do my share."

NEXT WEEK IS CLEAN-UP TIME FOR BERKELEY

BERKELEY, April 19.—Mayor Louis Bartlett today designated next week as "Cleanup Week." "The time has come," he said, "for our annual spring house-cleaning. The accumulation of winter in backyards should be disposed of and the Berkeley garbage department is ready to cooperate with the citizens in cleaning up their premises. It is important that this be done promptly before the dry weather comes, as the fire menace is greater when the weeds and grass are dry and all accumulation of rubbish should be disposed of before that time.

"All the departments of the city government will co-operate with the citizens of Berkeley in helping to make 'Cleanup Week' a success."

Lodi City Attorney Quits Under Fire

Lodi, April 19.—On the heels of a brutal attack at a meeting of the city trustees by Mr. H. Faust, charging him with neglect to safeguard the city's rights and interests, City Attorney C. M. Steele announced that his resignation had been tendered the night before.

Faust, a trustee of the grammar school district, scored Steele in connection with the recent $50,000 suit for damages brought by Mrs. Ernest Felsch, whose husband was shot and killed in Lodi last fall as a mobster suspect by City Marshal Ferdinand Christensen.

The suit was settled by the payment to Mrs. Felsch of $3,000 a few days ago. Faust blamed Steele for the conduct of the case, and charged that Mrs. Felsch's attorney, Samuel Gannon, is a law partner of Steele's.

After announcing that he already had resigned as city attorney, Steele replied that he had not been consulted in the Felsch case, and explained that Mrs. Felsch had retained Gannon to represent her before Gannon and Steele formed their law partnership.

No action was taken by the city trustees.

Products Show Plans To Be Studied Tonight

HAYWARD, April 19.—The board of directors of the Eden Township Farm Products Show Association, comprised of last year's show and thirty-nine delegates from thirteen community centers planning to participate in this year's show will meet here tonight to make plans for the show.

August 5 has already been set for the opening day of the exhibit this year, and tonight's meeting is expected to decide the length of time it will be kept open, and the definite nature of its exhibits.

It is possible that the association may decide tonight whether or not a special manager is to be engaged to produce the show this year. A. A. Trempp, producer of the Berkeley Industrial Exhibit and San Francisco Industrial Exhibit, and San Francisco in 1922 will attend tonight's meeting and will be interviewed by the association.

M. J. Madison, president of the show association, will preside at tonight's meeting. It is possible that tonight's meeting may see a special invitation extended to all sections of rural Alameda county to participate in the farm products show this year.

ROOSTER CROWS AGAIN MAY RING ACROSS CAMPUS

Demurrer Causes Dismissal of Anti-Noise Case; Ordinance Faces Test.

BERKELEY, April 19.—The constitutionality of Berkeley's anti-noise ordinance adopted several months ago when roosting roosters kept residents of the college city awake, is to be tested in the courts. H. R. Roper, attorney for the rooster breeders, filed a demurrer to the ordinance, claiming that it was unconstitutional, and that the ordinance was a violation of the rights of the citizens to keep their property.

The demurrer was filed in the superior court of Berkeley, and the case is set for trial on May 1. The ordinance, which was adopted by the city council in 1921, provides that no person shall keep a rooster on his premises, and that any person who violates the ordinance shall be fined $100.

The ordinance was challenged by the rooster breeders, who claimed that it was unconstitutional, and that it was a violation of the rights of the citizens to keep their property.

The case is set for trial on May 1, and the ordinance will face a test of its constitutionality.

Foreman and Clark prices for Spring have not advanced, and will not advance. Foreman and Clark gain in volume in 1922 enables us to absorb, in our own organization, the sweeping increase in the woolen market. Foreman and Clark prices for spring, furthermore, are not marked-up to cover mark-downs later. We never juggle prices. We never give one man less for his money than another. We don't consider it honest to charge one price for a suit one day, and another price some other day. We turn over our stocks every six weeks, and never have old styles, or odd lots. The public buys these clothes as fast as we can make them. Our store is full of models built less than six weeks ago in our own New York factories. We build these clothes, we sell these clothes, we guarantee these clothes!

Trade Upstairs and Save $10.

—at the largest makers-and-retailers of men's clothing in the world

The principles outlined above are as much a part of Foreman and Clark as the name itself. They are nothing new in this business. The real news on this page is contained at the left and in the headline. We are now able to guarantee even the weight, the weave, and the count of the thread in the woollens we use. New and extensive connections with New England's greatest textile houses—are the reason! The public is entitled to the credit. Only our phenomenal gain of last year (100,000 new customers), made this possible. The same principles of building clothes better and selling them lower is doubling that gain, day by day.
